III-ACTIVITIES

II.

Korea Trade Promotion Corporation, Seoul, is the only foreign principal represented and for which services are provided. Principal function of the Korea Trade Promotion Center is the development of two-way trade between the United States and the Republic of Korea. Activities include answering telephone and mail inquiries from prospective importers and exporters seeking business connections in U.S. and Korea; providing information or obtaining information from suppliers in both countries about specific products; arranging meeting between suppliers and buyers visiting Korea either directly or through the Korea Trade Promotion Corporation's facilities. Other activities include market research; reporting on business trends and consumer buying patterns; general economic conditions and changes in trade laws affecting imports and exports and reporting on new trade regulations, including Customs' rulings and decisions. Special activities include the following:

April 16, 1984, Mr. Byung Chong Lee, Executive Director, was a speaker at a seminar in Columbus, Ohio, organized by the Cincinnati District Office, U.S. Dept. of Commerce; International Trade Division, Ohio Department of Development; Ohio Department of Agriculture; World Trade Development Club of The Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce; U.S. Small Business Administration; Southern Ohio District Export Council. Mr. Lee's subject was Seoul International Trade Fair'84 in which he described opportunities for Ohio companies to explore the Korean market and to establish valuable trade contacts through participating in the fair. Approximately 200 business executives attended.

August-September; Korea Trade Promotion Center provided on request information for companies and state agencies on the fair including aiding them in reserving space and serving in a liaison capacity with the fair's organizer the Korea Trade Promotion Corporation. Fair was sponsored by the Ministry of Trade and Industry.

September 22-25, 29th Sporting Goods Show, N.Y. Coliseum, New York City, sponsored by the Sporting Goods Manufacturers Association of U.S.A. Korea Trade Promotion Center arranged for Korean sporting goods manufacturers to participate in the show. Activities included reserving exhibition space for the Korean firms and rendering such assistance as necessary. Eleven Korean firms participated in the show.
