No. 43-R226.5
Approval Expires Oct. 31, 1981

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20530

Form OBD-68
(Rev 10-14-76)
Formerly DJ-307
for

AMENDMENT TO REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended.

1. Name of Registrant	2. Registration No.
H. WILLIAM TANAKA, d/b/a Tanaka Walders & Ritger	948

3. This amendment is filed to accomplish the following indicated purpose or purposes:

- [ ] To correct a deficiency in
  - [ ] Initial Statement
  - [ ] Supplemental Statement S for 10/25/71 - 4/24/76
- [ ] To give notice of change in an exhibit previously filed.
- [ ] To give a 10-day notice of a change in information as required by Section 2(b) of the Act.
- [XXX] Other purpose (specify) To supplement previous submissions and to comply with the terms of the Consent Decree in Civil Action No. 76-1260, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia involving the U.S.-Japan Trade Council, Registrant No. 929

4. If this amendment requires the filing of a document or documents, please list -

N.A.

5. Each item checked above must be explained below in full detail together with, where appropriate, specific reference to and identity of the item in the registration statement to which it pertains. If more space is needed, full size insert sheets may be used.

1. The following supplemental information is furnished in answer to "Name of Registrant" - H. William Tanaka, d/b/a Tanaka and Walders through Supplemental Statement covering reporting period April 25, 1975 through October 24, 1975; d/b/a Tanaka Walders & Ritger effective Supplemental Statement covering reporting period October 25, 1975 through April 24, 1976.

2. Attached Appendix A supplements information previously furnished in response to II - Foreign Principal, Item No. 10; III-Activities, Items No. 11 and 13; and IV-Financial Information, Item 14.(a), "Receipts-Monies".

The undersigned swear(s) or affirm(s) that he has (they have) read the information set forth in this amendment and that he is (they are) familiar with the contents thereof and that such contents are in their entirety true and accurate to the best of his (their) knowledge and belief.

(Both copies of this amendment shall be signed and sworn to before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths by the agent, if the registrant is an individual, or by a majority of those partners, officers, directors or persons performing similar functions who are in the United States, if the registrant is an organization.)

H. William Tanaka

Subscribed and sworn to before me at Washington, D.C.

this 14th day of December, 1976 Frances J. Fitzgerald
(Notary or other officer)

My commission expires MY COMMISSION EXPIRES: MAY 15, 1977

DOJ

APPENDIX A

H. WILLIAM TANAKA, d/b/a Tanaka and Walders through Supplemental Statement covering reporting period April 25, 1975 through October 24, 1975; d/b/a Tanaka Walders & Ritger effective Supplemental Statement covering reporting period October 25, 1975 through April 24, 1976.

Registration No. 948

Amendments to Supplemental Statements filed for period October 25, 1971 through April 24, 1976

II - FOREIGN PRINCIPAL

Item No. 10

Reporting Periods: October 25, 1971 through April 24, 1976

Government of Japan:

(a) Japan Trade Center, 393 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, through Supplemental Statement covering period April 25, 1973 through October 24, 1973; 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York, beginning with Supplemental Statement covering reporting period October 25, 1973 through April 24, 1974.

(b) U.S.-Japan Trade Council, 1000 Connecticut Ave., N.W. Washington, D. C.

(c) Embassy of Japan, 2520 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. 20008

Reporting Period: October 25, 1975 through April 24, 1976

Government of the Republic of Singapore:

(a) Embassy of the Republic of Singapore

III - ACTIVITIES

Item No. 11

Reporting Period: October 25, 1971 through April 24, 1972

Government of Japan:

(a) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services regarding U.S. labor moves to restrict U.S. direct investment abroad; a review of 1971 and an outlook for 1972 bearing on U.S. economic and foreign trade policies; developments in the anti-dumping area; reported on the administration of escape clause proceedings; reported on Phase II of New Economic Program; reported on Senate passage of strict fish inspection bill; and otherwise reported on actions and developments bearing on economic policy and trade.

(b) Japan Trade Center: Researched, prepared and submitted a general survey and outlook on the U.S. economy, discussing the impact of the New Economic Policy on business recovery, unemployment, inflation, and United States foreign economic policy; reported on recent developments in United States actions bearing on trade policy, and furnished a historical, economic and market analysis of U.S.-Canadian trade in automotive products and the role of the U.S.-Canada Auto Treaty.

(c) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Lawrence R. Walders attended staff meetings and participated in the discussions relating generally to the subject of trade barriers, and reviewed and edited for factual accuracy one and perhaps two of the U.S.-Japan Trade Council reports.

Reporting Period: April 25, 1972 through October 24, 1972

Government of Japan:

(a) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services regarding recent developments in the United States affecting U.S. foreign economic policy; prepared an analysis of the role of United States labor in the economic and trade policy areas; summarized the United States Treasury Department proposed changes to the Antidumping Regulations and revisions to the Customs Regulations; reported on Canadian actions bearing on multinational corporations; reported on the Treasury Department Countervailing Duty Investigation involving Japanese consumer electronic products and components; analyzed the proposed Republican and Democratic Parties' Platforms in their respective implications on international trade and economic policy; reported on U.S. Tariff Commission decisions in various proceedings including hearings held on the Customs Valuation issue; and otherwise reported on actions bearing on trade developments in several product areas.

(b) Japan Trade Center: Reviewed and analyzed comments submitted in the Treasury Department Countervailing Duty Investigation involving Japanese consumer electronic products and components; reported on U.S. developments and actions affecting U.S. economic and trade policy and otherwise reported on developments in the consumer, labor and antitrust areas.

(c) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Lawrence R. Walders attended several staff meetings and participated in some discussions generally involving antidumping matters, and reviewed for factual accuracy at least one of the U.S.-Japan Trade Council reports.

Reporting Period: October 25, 1972 through April 24, 1973

Government of Japan:

(a) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services regarding U.S. Tariff Commission determinations in antidumping proceedings involving Kraft Wrapping Paper and Perchlorethylene; provided an explanation of the provisions affecting imports contained in the Consumer Product Safety Act; analyzed the amendments to the U.S. antidumping regulations; furnished a review of the U.S. Administration's proposed trade legislation; reported on the dollar devaluation; analyzed developments bearing on currency realignments and their implications in connection with antidumping investigations; reported on the Court of Appeals decision in the American Express case under the Countervailing Duty Act; and otherwise reported on developments in the foreign economic and trade areas.

(c) Japan Trade Center: A major portion of the activities consisted of providing a general explanation of the amendments to the Antidumping Regulations, an analysis of the Consumer Product Safety Act with particular emphasis on provisions affecting imports; researched and prepared a legal analysis covering procedural steps bearing on incorporation in the United States; reviewed the outlook for U.S. international economic policy including the impact of international currency realignments on international marketing and trade.

(d) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Lawrence R. Walders attended one or two staff meetings and participated in discussions involving U.S.-Japan Trade.

Reporting Period: April 25, 1973 through October 24, 1973

Government of Japan:

(a) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services regarding U.S. Administration imposition of a 60-day Price Freeze and analyzed the Cost of Living Council rules issued pursuant thereto; researched and analyzed agriculture export restrictions; reported on establishment of Consumer Product Safety Commission; reported on the status of The Trade Reform Act and prepared a review of 1973 cases decided under the Antidumping Act; and otherwise provided informational services on developments in various import trade areas.

(b) Japan Trade Center: Researched, prepared and furnished a general legal analysis of the trade bill; prepared comments on the Food and Drug Administration bicycle safety standards; reported on congressional hearings on the Trade Reform Act; reported on the Cost of Living Council and Consumer Product Safety Commission actions bearing on import trade.

(c) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Lawrence R. Walders attended one or two staff meetings bearing on developments in the U.S.-Japan trade.

Reporting Period: October 25, 1973 through April 24, 1974

Government of Japan:

(a) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services regarding the energy crisis and its implications on U.S. economic and foreign trade policies; reported on developments affecting passage of the trade bill; researched, analyzed and prepared a review of 1973 and an outlook for 1974 bearing on political developments and personnel changes in the White House, Executive Branch, Administrative Agencies and the Congress; reported on developments relating to East-West trade, foreign investment in the United States and reported on regulatory agencies actions including the Treasury Department, the Customs Service, the Consumer Product Safety Commission, the Federal Trade Commission and the U.S. Justice Department; prepared an analysis of the defect notification regulations issued by the Consumer Product Safety Commission; reviewed and analyzed actions in the area of patent reform, foreign investment controls and trade policy.

(b) Japan Trade Center: Reported on the Trade Reform Act, on developments relating to the energy crisis and its potential impact on U.S. economic and trade policy as well as its effects on international trade in general; analyzed the proposed rules issued by the Consumer Product Safety Commission concerning development of consumer product safety standards; researched and prepared a general survey and outlook for 1974 climate bearing on U.S. economic and trade policies.

(c) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Lawrence R. Walders attended one or two staff meetings, and H. William Tanaka or Lawrence R. Walders may have reviewed and edited at least one U.S.-Japan Trade Council report for accuracy.

Reporting Period: April 25, 1974 through October 24, 1974

(a) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services regarding the Federal Trade Commission business reporting requirements; the Consumer Product Safety Commission's rules concerning development of consumer product safety standards, the Federal Trade Commission "Line of Business" reporting program; the United States raw materials policy; analyzed the U.S. Customs Court decision in import surcharge case. Informational and reporterial services were also rendered covering President Nixon's resignation, the Ford Administration, the U.S. anti-inflation measures, progress on passage of the trade bill, and court ruling against Consumer Unions in the Steel case.

(b) Japan Trade Center: Reported on the status of the Trade Reform Act; reported on developments in the antidumping and countervailing duty areas; reported on Consumer Product Safety Commission bicycle safety standards; analyzed the Permanent United Nations Commission Report recommending establishment of an international antitrust agreement to regulate activities of multinational corporations; reporting on various litigations involving trade issues.

(c) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Lawrence R. Walders attended one or two staff meetings bearing on U.S.-Japan trade developments.

Reporting Period: October 25, 1974 through April 24, 1975

Government of Japan:

(a) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services regarding U.S. survey of foreign direct and portfolio investment; prepared an analysis of the Trade Act of 1974; prepared an analysis of the proposed warranty law; reported on Administration economic and energy proposals; reported on Tariff Preference matters, hearings on foreign investment in the U.S., referral of antidumping cases to the U.S. International Trade Commission during the course of pending investigations pursuant to certain provisions of the Trade Act of 1974; and otherwise reported on U.S. Government and industry actions bearing on economic policy and import trade in various product areas.

(b) Japan Trade Center: Reported on developments bearing on foreign investment in the United States; reviewed 1975 prospects for the United States economy; reported on the Trade Act of 1974 and researched, prepared and furnished an in-depth legal analysis of provisions thereof affecting United States import trade.

(c) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Lawrence R. Walders probably attended at least one staff meeting.

Reporting Period: April 25, 1975 through October 24, 1975

Government of Japan:

(a) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services regarding the Office of the Special Trade Representative's Trade Policy Staff Committee hearings on Negotiating List; reported on the Federal Trade Commission implementation and enforcement policy on warranties; reported on Administration proposed Customs Modernization Act; reported on Tariff Schedules of the United States Item 807.00 developments and U.S. Customs Service simplified import entry procedures; analyzed the Consumer Product Safety Regulations; and otherwise reported on U.S. actions bearing on economic and foreign trade policies in various product areas.

(b) Japan Trade Center: Reported on U.S. International Trade Commission hearings on probable economic effect on U.S. industries and consumers of concessions resulting from trade agreements and a Generalized System of Preferences; reported on Office of Special Trade Representative's hearings on Non-Tariff Trade Barriers; analyzed proposed amendments by the U.S. Treasury Department to the Antidumping Regulations pursuant to the Trade Act of 1974; reported on U.S. actions affecting U.S. economic and trade policy.

(c) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Lawrence R. Walders attended one or two staff meetings and Lawrence R. Walders or H. William Tanaka may have reviewed and edited for factual and legal accuracy one of the U.S.-Japan Trade Council reports.

Reporting Period: October 25, 1975 through April 24, 1976

Government of Japan:

(a) Embassy of Japan: Registrant and/or his staff furnished legal and informational services regarding the British Oxygen Acquisition case; analyzed and reported on the U.S. International Trade Commission Escape Clause investigation involving imports of Birch-Doorskin and the U.S. Treasury Department countervailing duty investigation involving imports of steel; report on court rulings in in the import surcharge case and litigation involving taxation of imported goods in distribution warehouses; reviewed and reported on developments in the area of seabed resources; prepared an analysis of U.S. Customs Service guidelines implementing the General System of Preferences; and otherwise provided informational and reporterial services covering U.S. actions impacting economic and foreign trade policies in different product areas.

(b) Japan Trade Center: Researched, prepared and submitted a general survey and outlook for the United States economy in 1976; reported on issuance by the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission of final regulations on bicycle safety standards; reported on International Trade Commission's adoption of final regulations governing Escape Clause proceedings pursuant to the Trade Act of 1974; reported on miscellaneous developments bearing on economic and trade policies.

(c) U.S.-Japan Trade Council: Lawrence R. Walders attended one or two staff meetings and reported on legal procedural developments relating to the various proceedings involving imports of television receivers.

Government of the Republic of Singapore:

(a) Embassy of the Republic of Singapore: Reported on U.S. actions in trade area impacting on imports from Singapore; prepared a compendium of countervailing duty cases decided under the Trade Act of 1974; reported on the status of the Generalized System of Preferences and actions taken by the Office of the Special Trade Representative and International Trade Commission relating thereto.

Item No. 13

Reporting Period: April 25, 1973 through October 24, 1973

On May 17, 1973, Registrant testified before the House Ways and Means Committee on his own behalf as a practitioner with expertise in the field expressing his own views in connection with the Trade Reform Act of 1973. Accordingly, testimony therein was limited solely to addressing certain procedural changes proposed for the purpose of promoting orderly, efficient and thorough processing of trade cases. Registrant did not and does not believe that this activity benefited any of his foreign principals in any quantifiable terms, either directly or indirectly. However, since this activity may be perceived to have benefited any one or more of his foreign principals, this activity has been described herein.

IV - FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Item No. 14.(a) - Receipts-Monies

Reporting Periods:October 25, 1971 through April 24, 1976

"From Whom":

(a) From the Embassy of Japan through U.S.-Japan Trade Council and Japan Trade Promotion Office to Registrant.

(b) From the Government of Japan through the Embassy of Japan.

(c) From the Government of Japan through the Japan Trade Center.

Reporting Period: October 25, 1975 through April 24, 1976

"From Whom":

(a) From the Government of the Republic of Singapore through the Embassy of the Republic of Singapore.