The function of the Mexican National Tourist Council in the U.S. is to promote travel to Mexico by building knowledge of tourist rewards in Mexico and creating better understanding of the cultural, social and economic values in Mexico's national life. This is done by direct advertising and sales promotion and preparation of brochures; also by setting up special events, and, in normal public relations functions that include press releases, making films and photos available and general informational activities-all designed to build favorable attitudes within the travel trades, the travelling public and similar modes of opinions.

[1] The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in section 1(b) of the Act, an individual or organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a)(9)).

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity[2] as defined below?
