Comite Textil de la Sociedad Nacional de Industrias: General legal representation and advisory services relative to issues and concerns in the area of U.S.-Peruvian trade relations generally and other matters arising under domestic and international law, including assessing economic trends, identifying support for development and expansion of markets for Peruvian textiles and apparel, making comparative legal analyses with regard to U.S. policies regulating these Peruvian exports, and relative to bilateral negotiations and implementation of provisions of a Textile Agreement between the two countries.

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity[2] as defined below?

Yes.

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

The Royal Bank of Canada: On February 20, March 28, April 6, and April 16, 1990, Mr. Welsh of our firm spoke with Ms. Jeanne Roslanowick, Senior Trade Counsel of the House Committee on Small Business, regarding the Task Force on International Competitiveness of U.S. Banks, chaired by Rep. John J. La Falce of New York, chairman of the Committee on Small Business and a senior member of the House Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs. Ms. Roslanowick is serving as staff director of the Task Force.

The purpose of the conversations was to determine whether members of the Task Force would be interested in a briefing by Mr. Allan R. Taylor, Chairman and CEO of the Royal Bank of Canada, on U.S.-Canadian banking issues. While Ms. Roslanowick expressed a possible interest in such a briefing, a time for such a briefing could not be arranged to meet the schedule of the Task Force and Mr. Taylor.

Comite Textil de la Sociedad Nacional de Industrias: During the week of December 4, 1989, a four-person delegation from the Comite Textil came to Washington to meet with U.S. officials on President Bush's recently announced Andean Trade Package. A copy of the President's announcement on his Andean Trade Package is attached. The members of the delegation were Mr. Orlando Olivieri, President of the Comite Textil and Commercial Director of Fabrica de Tejidos La Union Ltda., S.A., of Lima, Peru; Mr. Enrique Falcone, Vice President of the Comite Textil and Production Manager of Fabrica de Tejidos "La Bellotta," S.A. of Lima, Peru; Mr. Rafael Valdez, a member of the Comite de Fabricantes de Prendas de Vestir (an affiliated committee of the Comite Textil) and Chief Executive Officer of the International Cotton Group of Miami, Florida, a U.S. agent for a number of Peruvian textiles producers;and Mr. Jose Gonzalez, a member of the Comite Textil and General Manager of Industria Textil Piura, S.A., of Lima, Peru.

At the delegation's request, we arranged a series of meetings on December 5, 6 and 7, 1989 with U.S. officials involved or interested in the Andean Trade Package (continued)

[2] The term 'political activities' means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulation, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity[2] as defined below?

Yes.

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

A list of officials visited is attached. Mr. Welsh of our firm accompanied the delegation on each of these visits. At the request of the delegation, Mr. Luis Alberto Sanchez, Commercial Minister Counselor of the Embassy of Peru, was also present for most of these visits.

The purpose of the visits was to gain a better understanding of the President's Andean Trade Package, in particular, as it may allow for expanded textiles trade with Peru. Members of the delegation reviewed Peru's textiles trade with the United States and current impediments to the expansion of such trade, including internal political/economic problems in Peru, U.S. quotas and U.S. countervailing duties. It was indicated by Mr. Sanchez at such meetings that the Government of Peru would, in time, be submitting formal recommendations for expanding textiles trade with Peru under the Andean Trade Package.

Subsequent to these meetings, Mr. Welsh has been in regular contact with the Comite Textil about developments under the Andean Trade Package, but has had no further contact with U.S. officials. To the best of our knowledge, any further contacts with U.S. officials have been made through Mr. Sanchez of the Embassy of Peru.

Salzgitter, A.G.: During this reporting period, registrant has engaged in no activities on behalf of principal not exempt by Sec 3(g) of the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

[2]The term 'political activities' means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulation, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release November 1, 1989

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

When President Barco of Colombia visited me September 28, I promised to examine what the United States could do to expand economic cooperation between our two countries. I directed the United States Trade Representative, Carla Hills, to lead a United States Government interagency effort to develop a package of trade initiatives that will contribute to the Administration's war on drugs.

Today I am announcing the result of that effort. The package of trade initiatives described below is designed to create opportunities for expanded trade and investment between the countries of the Andean region and the United States. Given the regional nature of the drug problem, I have decided to offer these trade initiatives to the countries in the Andean region. In creating such opportunities, this package aims to encourage and support fundamental economic reform in the countries of the region on the basis of market-driven policies.

I believe that through increased trade we can make a contribution to the creation of economic alternatives to drug trafficking. Healthy economies are the only lasting solution for eliminating the drug trade and substituting legitimate trade. They also offer the potential for increased United States exports and investment. Our goal must be to help create an environment where entrepreneurship can flourish and comparative advantages can be successfully pursued in competitive world markets.

With regard to bilateral and regional initiatives, we are prepared to:

- do all that we can to enhance the benefits the countries of the region enjoy under our Generalized System of Preferences, including a review, to begin immediately, to consider the addition of new products, both agricultural and industrial, to the program;

- more -

- undertake appropriate technical assistance to help the Andean countries improve their trade performance in industrial as well as agricultural products, and urge the multilateral institutions to do the same; and

- after consulting with the affected parties, explore possibilities for expanding textiles trade consistent with current United States Government policies and programs and the Multifiber Arrangement.

In the multilateral arena we are proposing to:

- build on the political consensus to negotiate a new International Coffee Agreement that corrects the fundamental problems with the previous agreement;

- undertake an accelerated negotiation on tariffs and non-tariff measures with participants in the Uruguay Round;

- consult with our major trading partners (Canada, the EC, and Japan) to determine areas in which we can help the Andean countries improve their trade performance; and

- support the multilateral development banks in their efforts to work with the Andean countries to promote meaningful trade policy reforms in the Andean countries.

In order to ensure that these initiatives are implemented quickly and efficiently, the Office of the United States Trade Representative is heading up an interagency Andean Trade Task Force to manage the process and to consider additional ideas for strengthening our cooperation with the Andean countries.
