Japan Trade Promotion Office

Promotional and educational activities concerning U.S.-Japan trade. This includes appearances before official bodies of the U. S. Government and distribution of printed materials and other public relations and information to the press, business community and government officials.

As examples of the above, the Council engages in representational activity to the Members of Congress, testimony before Congressional committees and committees of state legislatures, publishing of pamphlets, press releases and newsletters, press conferences and speeches. To obtain and disseminate information about trade, and to help carry out the functions listed above, the Council employes Charles von Loewenfeldt, Inc., as its West Coast representative, William Dazey as its South West representative, H. Okada as its New York representative, Donald Lerch and Co. for agricultural public relations and Scott Runkle for general public relations activities.

[1] The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in section 1(b) of the Act, an individual or organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a)(9)).

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity[2] as defined below?

Yes [x] No [ ]

Dear Mr. Kido:

The United States-Japan Trade Council is pleased that your organization, the Japan Trade Promotion Office, plans to continue as a sustaining and contributing member of our Council. We understand your support will consist of contributions not to exceed $420,016.00 during our current fiscal year (April 1, 1974 to March 31, 1975), provided your financial situation permits such disbursements.

I am glad to confirm that these funds will be administered strictly in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws of the United States-Japan Trade Council. The United States-Japan Trade Council, and its officers and staff, agree to expend their best efforts in the direction of fostering friendlier trade relations between the two countries. Specifically, we would plan to provide during the fiscal year just beginning the following kinds of services:

(a) Public relations measures to disseminate widely throughout the United States information on the economic and trade problems of Japan and the United States;

(b) Observation and reports upon activities of the United States Congress and Executive agencies which may in any way affect the United States-Japan trade;

(c) Representation of the interests of all parties involved in trade between the two countries and formal presentation of testimony thereon before the United States Congress and Executive agencies;

(d) Sponsorship of meetings with the press and conferences with other interested persons to discuss the United States-Japan trade and related problems;

(e) Maintenance of close coordination with other organizations and associations having an interest in liberal United States foreign trade policies generally and in the United States-Japan trade particularly;

(f) Economic and statistical research on selected problems of significance to the trade between the two countries.

At the termination of the fiscal year (March 31, 1975) we shall present to you an accounting for all funds received and shall return any balance still remaining at that time.

You or any other qualified representative of the Japan Trade Promotion Office, may at any time inspect our Council's activities and accounting records in order to assure that your contributions are expended economically in pursuance of the above-listed objectives.

We appreciate the substantial support your organization has been giving the Council and are grateful for the confidence thus expressed in our organization. Recommendations and suggestions as to Council activities are welcome at any time.

Sincerely,

Nelson A. Stitt

Dear Mr. Kido:

This is to further amend the letter contract dated April 1, 1973, between the United States-Japan Trade Council and the Japan Trade Promotion Office, as signed by you as Director, and as amended on August 6, 1973 and October 25, 1973. We are pleased at your decision, as a sustaining and contributing member, to provide the Council with an additional contribution, not to exceed $130,000.00 to be utilized during the remainder of Japanese fiscal year 1973.

This additional financial assistance will be expended exclusively for the purpose set forth in sub-paragraph (a) of the second paragraph of the original contract, to wit:

> "(a) Public relations measures to disseminate widely throughout the United States information on the economic and trade problems of Japan and the United States; . . . "

All other provisions of the original April 1, 1973 contract will remain in effect.

We appreciate this additional financial support and are grateful for the confidence thus expressed in our organization.
