8. Has your connection with any foreign principal ended during this 6 month reporting period?

Yes No

If yes, furnish the following information:

Name of foreign principal

Date of Termination

9. Have you acquired any new foreign principal¹ during this 6 month reporting period? Yes No

If yes, furnish following information:

Name and address of foreign principal

Date acquired

10. In addition to those named in Items 8 and 9, if any, list the foreign principals¹ whom you continued to represent during the 6 month reporting period.

List of steamship lines is attached.

III - ACTIVITIES

11. During this 6 month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal named in Items 8, 9 and 10 of this statement? Yes No

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail your activities and services:

Yes. Registrant has kept all of its principals closely advised of U.S. Governmental developments affecting their interests as passenger ship operators, including the issuance of rules by the Federal Maritime Commission under Sections 2 and 3 of Public Law 89-777 and required filings in compliance therewith; the regulations promulgated by the Coast Guard under that statute and possible amendment of that statute to delete disclosure advertising requirements; bills introduced in Congress to abolish the right of passenger vessel owners to limit their liability under 46 U.S.C. sec. 183 and to increase the number of cruises in which subsidized American flag lines may engage.

These developments have been discussed at meetings attended by New York representatives of the foreign principals.

¹The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in section 1(b) of the Act, an individual or organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a)(9)).

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity² as defined below?

Yes No

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

The only "political activity" engaged in by registrant has consisted of occasional visits to and correspondence with members of Congress and representatives of the U.S. Coast Guard and Federal Maritime Commission in connection with the matters referred to in the answer to 11 and particularly with abolition of disclosure in advertising requirements in Public Law 89-777.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits any or all of your foreign principals?

Yes No

If yes, describe fully.

² The term "political activities" means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.
