Re: Engagement of Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP

Your Excellency:

On behalf of Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP ("SPB"), thank you for the opportunity to represent the Government of the Republic of Sudan (the "Government") as part of the Government's economic development agenda. We understand SPB's scope of work will include a program to: (i) avoid "snap back" of U.S. sanctions on Sudan pursuant to Executive Order 13761; and (ii) identify and implement strategies to improve Sudan's investment climate. SPB will execute a subcontractor agreement with a public relations firm that will assist SPB in its representation of the Government. This scope of work will require that SPB register under the U.S. Foreign Agent Registration Act.

A written engagement agreement is required or recommended by the law of professional ethics in the jurisdictions in which we practice law. The engagement agreement between us consists of this letter and the enclosed Standard Terms and Conditions of Engagement ("Standard Terms") (collectively, the "Engagement Agreement"). The Engagement Agreement is designed to address our responsibilities to each other and to outline for you certain important matters that are best established early as we form an attorney-client relationship with you in this matter.

The Engagement Agreement responds to requirements in the rules of professional ethics and is intended to achieve a better understanding between us. We request that you review the Engagement Agreement carefully. By proceeding with this engagement you will be indicating to us that you have done so. It is important that you review and understand the terms of our relationship, such as the section on "Conflicts of Interest." For many of our clients from nations other than the United States, the section on "Conflicts of Interest" makes our agreement on conflicts similar if not identical to the ethics rules for lawyers in your country.

For this matter, we have agreed to a fixed monthly fee of US$40,000 due and payable on the first business day of the month (the "Fee"), except for the first two months (totaling US$80,000) which shall be due and payable upon signature of this letter. The Fee does not constitute advance payment for services. In the event U.S. sanctions are re-imposed, the Government has no interest in the Fees paid, direct or indirect, and shall have no right to a refund of any amount of the Fee.

The Fee does not cover the ordinary, out-of-pocket expenses that we will incur in representing the Government. The expenses for which we will bill the Government separately may include, among others: photocopying, long-distance telephone calls, international data fees, translation services, courier fees, and travel expenses. Please note that, under our Standard Terms, invoices for our expenses are payable within thirty days of the date of our statement.

Importantly, should U.S. sanctions be re-imposed, the Engagement Agreement shall cease until such time as, contingent upon the Government's approval, SPB applies for and obtains a license from the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control, for the provision of services to, and payment from, the Government.

I would appreciate it if you would confirm your acceptance by countersigning the enclosed copy of this letter and returning it to me. You should also feel free to consult with independent counsel before signing. Throughout our relationship, we want you to be satisfied with the professional services that we perform on your behalf. Accordingly, we encourage you to contact us just as soon as you have any questions or concerns regarding our services or our fees.

Sincerely,

Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP
