Re: Contract of Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP

Your Excellency:

On behalf of Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP ("SPB"), thank you for the opportunity to represent the Office of the Presidency of the Republic of Angola (the "Government") as part of a comprehensive program to: (1) develop projects, (2) increase US trade and investment, (3) enhance Angola's profile in the United States; and (4) provide strategic communications advice. SPB may periodically introduce appropriate Government officials to its clients and potential clients who are proposing to do business with the Government, and potentially represent those clients in negotiating and documenting the terms of any resulting transaction. We are grateful for the Government's expression of confidence in our work, and its interest in renewing and extending the terms of our engagement.

A written engagement agreement is required or recommended by the law of professional ethics in the jurisdictions in which we practice law. The engagement agreement between our firm and your Government consists of this letter and the enclosed Standard Terms and Conditions of Engagement Applicable Worldwide ("Standard Terms") (collectively, the "Engagement Agreement"). Where this letter and the Standard Terms conflict, this letter shall control. The Engagement Agreement is designed to address our responsibilities to each other and to outline for you certain important matters that are best established early as we form an attorney-client relationship with you in this matter. The Engagement Agreement supersedes all prior agreements between us.

The Engagement Agreement responds to requirements in the rules of professional ethics and is intended to achieve a better understanding between us. We request that you review the Engagement Agreement carefully. By proceeding with this engagement, you will be indicating to us that you have done so. It is important that you review and understand the terms of our relationship, such as the section on "Conflicts of Interest." For many of our clients from nations other than the United States, the section on "Conflicts of Interest" makes our agreement on conflicts similar if not identical to the ethics rules for lawyers in your country.

I will be principally responsible for SPB's work on this matter. I will be supported by a broad and experienced team of colleagues, many of whom you met in Washington, DC. In addition, SPB will execute a subcontractor agreement with Erme Capital Ltd. ("EC") who will assist SPB in its representation of the Government. Finally, SPB and EC will register pursuant to the US Foreign Agent Registration Act before engaging in political activities on behalf of the Government.

The term of our engagement will be from 1 January 2025 through 31 December 2025 (the "Term").

For this matter, we have agreed to a fixed semi-annual (i.e., twice a year) retainer of US$1,875,000 (totaling US$3,750,000 for one year) (the "Retainer") against which we will bill our fees and any costs at the rate of US$312,500 per month (the "Monthly Fee"). The Retainer will be payable in advance, the first payment due upon signature of this Engagement Agreement. We will deposit the Retainer into our client escrow account and transfer the Monthly Fee to our operating account at the end of each month. The Monthly Fee will cover our fees and costs, as well as those of EC. Please note that, under our Standard Terms, our invoices are payable within thirty days of the date of our statement. Our wire transfer instructions are as follows:

Please confirm your acceptance of this Engagement Agreement by countersigning the enclosed copy of this letter and returning it to me. If you do not agree with one or more of the provisions of the Engagement Agreement, please contact me so that we can try to address your concerns. You should also feel free to consult with independent counsel before signing. Throughout our relationship, we want you to be satisfied with the professional services that we perform on your behalf. Accordingly, we encourage you to contact us just as soon as you have any questions or concerns regarding our services or our fees.

Your Excellency, it remains our honor to represent the Government and, through it, the people of Angola.
