Subject: Meeting Request for 3/16 or 3/17 for PM Mohammed Shia'a Al-Sudani of Iraq

Alana,

With this afternoon's White House announcement (below) that Prime Minister Mohammed Shia'a Al-Sudani of Iraq will visit Washington, DC the week of April 15, 2024 we are reaching out on behalf of the Embassy of the Republic of Iraq (for which we are registered under FARA) to respectfully request a meeting for the Prime Minister with Chairman McCaul on Tuesday, April 16 or Wednesday, April 17. We would also welcome the opportunity for representatives of the Embassy of the Republic of Iraq and Squire Patton Boggs to meet with staff during the first week of April, in advance of the Prime Minister's DC visit.

We're reaching out with similar requests to Speaker Johnson, Majority Leader Scalise and House Armed Services Committee Chairman Rogers, among others.

We'd be grateful for your consideration and acknowledgement of this request. Thank you, and best wishes to you and all of Team McCaul for a safe and peaceful spring break.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 22, 2024

Statement from Press Secretary Karine Jean-Pierre on the Visit of Prime Minister Mohammed Shia'a Al-Sudani of Iraq to the White House

On April 15, President Joe Biden will welcome Prime Minister Mohammed Shia'a Al-Sudani of Iraq to the White House to coordinate on common priorities and reinforce the strong bilateral partnership between the United States and Iraq. The leaders will reaffirm their commitment to the Strategic Framework Agreement and deepen their shared vision for a secure, sovereign, and prosperous Iraq fully integrated into the broader region. President Biden and Prime Minister Sudani will consult on a range of issues during the visit, including our shared commitment to the lasting defeat of ISIS and evolution of the military mission nearly ten years after forming the successful Global Coalition to Defeat ISIS. They will also discuss ongoing Iraqi financial reforms to promote economic development and progress towards Iraq's energy independence and modernization.
