

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

HOGAN & HARTSON, 555 - 13th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., a general partnership duly authorized and licensed to engage in the practice of law, and the EMBASSY OF JAPAN (The "Embassy") make this Agreement, as follows:

1. Services. At the request of the Embassy, HOGAN & HARTSON shall render general legal services to the Embassy in connection with the legal documentation for renovation of Building Automation System at the Ambassador's residence at 4000 Nebraska Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (the "Project"). The services to be provided shall include reviewing and consulting with the Embassy on bids or contracts presented to the Embassy for services or construction of the Project and helping the Embassy modify construction documents, as needed, to permit signing of such documents.

2. Exclusions: It is understood by the parties hereto that HOGAN & HARTSON will not have responsibility for matters relating to D.C. sales taxes, exemptions from taxes, bond and/or insurance matters or zoning matters nor for legal issues or site visits following signing of the documents. Without limiting the foregoing, the legal services to be provided hereunder shall not include the following:

(a) resolution of legal questions pertaining to zoning laws and the need or desirability of obtaining variances therefrom;

(b) preparation of applications and appearing on behalf of the Embassy to obtain necessary approvals or variances from zoning, building, environmental, and health authorities;

(c) resolution of legal questions pertaining to D.C. sales taxes or preparation of applications or appearances relating to such taxes or Embassy exemptions from such taxes;

(d) resolution of legal questions pertaining to bond or insurance matters or review of materials related to bond or insurance matters;

(e) participation in the Project or meetings or site visits following signing of the documents.

Also excluded from the services to be rendered by HOGAN & HARTSON hereunder are any and all legal services requested by the Embassy in connection with litigation or arbitration matters, as well as other matters which are the subject of a general retainer arrangement between the Embassy and HOGAN & HARTSON.

3. Fee. For Hogan & Hartson's services hereunder, the Embassy agrees to compensate HOGAN & HARTSON in the amount of Seven Thousand and Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500), payable within 30 days after completion of the legal services. In addition, the Embassy shall reimburse HOGAN & HARTSON on a monthly basis for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred in providing services hereunder, including but not limited to travel, copying, long distance telephone calls, and nonlegal staff overtime.

4. Duration. This contract shall become effective on the date hereof and shall continue until March 30, 1991.
