RETAINER AGREEMENT

Korea Foreign Trade Association ("KFTA") and Hogan & Hartson ("Firm"), located at 555 13th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20004-1109, hereby enter into an agreement for services under the following terms and conditions:

1. Frank J. Fahrenkopf, Jr. will have the primary responsibility for this matter on behalf of the Firm and will be assisted by other members of the Firm as necessary.

2. The Firm will provide periodic reports identifying and analyzing critical international trade and economic developments in Washington that may significantly affect KFTA and its trade activities. These reports will not include daily and routine events that are normally covered by a monitoring service, but rather will focus on significant developments such as Administration trade policy or new legislation that specifically could affect U.S.-Korean trade. These reports will include an evaluation and analyses of such developments with appropriate recommendations.

3. In addition to the periodic reports, the Firm will consult with KFTA concerning strategy and recommendations with regard to the developments identified in the reports. As a result of those consultations, the Firm will perform additional assignments that may be deemed appropriate and agreed upon by both parties. Such assignments may include general lobbying activities, including, e.g., communicating KFTA's position on major trade issues and arranging meetings for KFTA officials and accompanying them on visits to the Congress or the Administration.

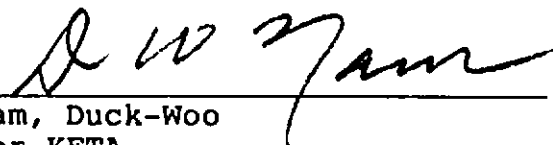

4. The Firm's lawyers will be available to respond to inquiries from representatives of KFTA on a daily basis in connection with U.S.-R.O.K. trade issues and laws.

5. For the services provided above, KFTA agrees to pay the Firm a fee of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per month plus expenses. Any expenses which are more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) per item must be approved in advance.

6. Projects beyond those services described above, such as full-scale lobbying on specific issues involving an unusually large expenditure of time, coalition building, or other activities in connection with a specific trade dispute or case, would be undertaken at an additional fee to be negotiated by the parties on a project-by-project basis.

7. It is understood that the Firm will register under, and comply with, the Foreign Agent Registration Act and any other law or regulations applicable to this agreement, as may be required.

8. This contract is effective on the first day of January, 1991. Either party has the option to terminate this contract at any time for any reason.
