Exhibit B to Registration StatementPursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public online at: <https://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .32 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

CONTRACT

Between the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, acting through the Ministry of the People's Power for Economy and Finance, represented herein by Anabel Pereira Fernández, in her capacity as Minister of the People's Power for Economy and Finance, acting in accordance with the powers conferred by Decree No. 5080 of January 15, 2025, published in Extraordinary Official Gazette No. 6878 of January 15, 2025 (hereinafter "the Republic"), with address at Avenida Urdaneta, Esquina de Carmelitas, Parroquia Altagracia, Municipio Libertador, Caracas, Distrito Capital, Venezuela, of the first part, and, of the second part, the law firm Hogan Lovells US LLP (acting directly and/or through its subsidiaries and affiliates, hereinafter jointly, "the Firm"), represented herein by Mr. José Francisco Valdivia III, in his capacity as Partner and Chief Legal Officer, with address at 555 13th St NW, Washington DC 20004, United States of America, who, acting jointly, will be referred to as "the Parties", agree to enter into this Contract, which will be governed by the following Clauses:

One: The Republic instructs the Firm, which accepts, to provide international legal advisory services in relation to the management or restructuring of its debt and related matters, and to provide advice on other legal or regulatory matters that the Republic may request from time to time, in accordance with this Contract.

Two: The Firm undertakes to use all its knowledge and experience for the purposes of fulfilling each and every obligation established in this Contract. The Firm may provide the services indicated above from any of its offices.

Three: The Republic undertakes to provide to the Firm with the collaboration and any assistance required for the provision of the services referred to in Clause One of this Contract, as well as access to any information necessary for the execution of the tasks covered by this Contract, subject to compliance with the duties of confidentiality set forth in the Non-Disclosure Agreement concluded on May 26, 2026, with the Republic (the "NDA") and its provisions will be applicable to any information or documentation received by the Firm pursuant to this Contract. In the event of a conflict between the NDA and this Contract regarding the Firm's confidentiality obligations, the terms of the NDA shall prevail.

The Firm shall inform the Republic of any impediment that may arise in accessing the information required to provide its services in accordance with this Contract.

Four: The Republic shall pay the Firm by way of fees and in consideration of activities referred to in Clause One, on the basis of the Firm's standard hourly rates, which may be periodically adjusted upon agreement signed by the Parties.

The Firm's current hourly rates, expressed in US dollars, are as follows:

Title
Current hourly rate ranges
Partner	USD 1450–USD 2400
Senior Advisor	USD 1415–USD 1920

Advisor	USD 1280–USD 1525
Senior Attorney	USD 1050–USD 1350
Associate	USD 700–USD 1040
Legal Assistant	USD 550–USD 690

The Firm shall include the amounts for professional services and expenses on its invoices and statements, including supporting documentation.

The fees and expenses of consultants, local attorneys, court reporters, experts, investigators and witnesses paid by the Firm shall be the responsibility of the Republic and shall be invoiced by the Firm, provided that the services that generate said fees have been approved by the Republic.

All amounts payable to the Firm regarding services rendered to the Republic shall be paid free of any withholding tax, sales tax or similar tax.

The Republic must ensure that the Firm receives the amounts specified in any invoice within thirty (30) days of receipt of the invoice or corresponding account statement. The payment shall always be made by bank transfer as specified on said invoices or account statements in a manner that does not violate or result in a restriction of the use of such funds under applicable laws.

Five: The Company shall not assign or transfer the execution of this Contract to third parties, in whole or in part, without the prior express authorization of the Republic.

Six: The Firm must have prior written authorization from the Republic to submit or develop plans for payment arrangements, transactions or means of self-composition on behalf of the Republic, and shall present the analysis, studies and reports regarding opportunities and benefits for the financial interests of the Republic, all in accordance with applicable regulations.

Seven: The Firm commits to submitting, within the first five (5) working days of each month and at any time at the request of the Republic, a detailed report of all activities carried out during the previous month. All documents, reports, opinions and other results arising from the execution of the Contract are the property of the Republic. Any information provided or generated by the Republic during the term of the Agreement shall remain the property of the Republic.

Upon conclusion of a matter, the Republic shall instruct the Firm to return, retain or discard, some or all of the documents relating to that matter; the Firm will comply with the Republic's instructions in this regard, unless the applicable professional conduct rules require the Firm to retain certain documents for a longer period. Unless the Republic indicates otherwise, the Firm shall retain any document that it considers the Republic will need to assert its rights or to present or defend claims; and notwithstanding the foregoing, the Republic accepts that the Firm may destroy any document retained by the Firm after ten (10) years or any other reasonable period of time, as determined by the Firm, or retain any document when it is in the interest of the Firm to do so, subject to applicable law.

Eight: The Terms and Conditions will be applicable to the provision of services by the Company to the Republic. For the purposes of the activities envisaged in this Contract, the Republic is the sole client of the Firm and therefore has professional obligations solely to the Republic.

Nine: It is understood that the Firm represents many other companies and individuals. With regard to possible conflicts of interest that may arise as a result of the provision of services of the Company to the Republic due to its professional or commercial relations with other subjects, national or foreign, ("Other Clients"), the Firm declares:

1. That, at the time of signing this Contract, it does not represent foreign individuals or companies that have interests contrary to those of the Republic.
2. That it will not use the Confidential Information obtained when conducting the activities covered by this Contract to the detriment of the interests of the Republic, in relation to its professional or commercial relations with Other Clients.
3. That it will not sue the Republic on behalf of, or under instruction, of Other Clients not listed in Paragraph 1 of this Clause, before national and international judicial or arbitration bodies, without first informing and giving sufficient notice to the Republic so that the latter may analyze potential conflicts of interest with regard to the subject matter of this Contract.

Ten: This Contract shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela on the date it was signed. The Parties shall endeavor to resolve, through direct consultations or negotiations, any dispute or disagreement that may arise regarding the execution, breach and/or interpretation of this Contract. If it cannot be resolved amicably within sixty days following notification by either of the Parties, the dispute or disagreement shall be referred solely and exclusively to arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on December 15, 1976. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators: an arbitrator will be appointed by each party and the chairperson of the tribunal will be appointed by mutual agreement by the two arbitrators appointed by the parties within thirty (30) days of the appointment of the second arbitrator or, in the absence of such an agreement, by the Secretary of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law. The seat and place of the arbitration shall be Paris, France. The language of the arbitration shall be English and Spanish, and the appointed arbitrators shall handle both languages.

Unless the law requires otherwise, neither a Party nor an arbitrator can reveal, the existence, content or results of any arbitration hereunder without the prior written consent of both Parties.

Any award granted shall be binding on the Parties. By submitting their dispute to arbitration, the Parties are required to comply with any award granted pursuant to this Contract.

Eleven: Each Party reserves the right to unilaterally terminate this Contract at any time, at its sole discretion, with thirty (30) calendar days' written notice to the other party. The Firm expressly declares that unilateral termination shall not grant it any right to compensation and, therefore, the Parties agree that the Republic shall not pay the Firm any amount, for the concept of potential or pretended gains left uncollected regarding the portion of the Contract not executed. In any case, the Republic shall recognize and pay the corresponding professional fees for the services provided and expenses incurred by the Firm at the time of termination.

In the event of termination of this Contract at the request of either of the Parties, the Firm undertakes to take all measures necessary for the protection of the interests of the Republic and in the event of unilateral termination, the Republic undertakes to take the necessary measures to relieve the Firm of any obligation to continue providing its services.

Twelve: The Parties expressly state that the necessary conditions of validity for signing this Contract have been complied with and, consequently, it is binding from the date it is signed. Furthermore, the Firm declares, assures and guarantees that it is sufficiently empowered to enter into this Contract and to establish the obligations that it entails.

Thirteen: This Contract is signed in Spanish and all communications between the Parties shall be in Spanish.

Fourteen: Any notification or other communication under this Contract must be made in writing and delivered to the corresponding Party at the following addresses: If the Firm, 555 13th St NW, Washington DC 20004, United States of America, Email: jose.valdivia@hoganlovells.com; If the Republic, Avenida Urdaneta, Esquina de Carmelitas, Parroquia Altigracia, Municipio Libertador, Caracas, Distrito Capital, Venezuela, F.A.O. Ministry of the People's Power for Economy and Finance.

Fifteen: This Contract shall be valid for twelve (12) months from the date on which the Parties sign it, and may be renewed for the same periods, using an Addendum to be signed by the Parties.

Signed in Caracas and Washington on the twenty-sixth (26) day of the month of May 2026. Two (02) identical copies are made with the same legal effect.

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Between the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela (hereinafter the "Republic"), acting through the Ministry of the People's Power for Economy and Finance, represented by Anabel Pereira Fernández, in her capacity as Minister of the People's Power for Economy and Finance, acting in accordance with the powers conferred by Decree No. 5080 of January 15, 2025, published in Extraordinary Official Gazette No. 6878 of January 15, 2025 and Hogan Lovells US LLP (hereinafter, the "Firm"), a limited liability company established under the laws of the State of Delaware, United States of America, duly represented by José Francisco Valdivia III, in his capacity as partner and Chief Legal Officer, which shall be referred to individually as the "Party" and jointly as the "Parties", agree to enter into this Non-Disclosure Agreement (hereinafter the "Non-Disclosure Agreement" or the "Agreement"), concluded in Caracas and Washington on May 26, 2026, which shall be governed by the following provisions:

1. Purpose - The purpose of this Non-Disclosure Agreement is to establish the terms and conditions under which the Parties shall maintain the confidentiality of the data and information provided by the Republic, in relation to the future hiring of the Firm as legal advisor for the management or restructuring of its debt.

2. Information - The Parties acknowledge that, in the course of discussions, activities, consultations or negotiations related to the Purpose, the Republic may provide certain confidential information to the Firm, including but not limited to, oral, written, documentary, computer, digital or photographic information, information of a scientific or technical nature, financial, legal, tax, or business information; opinions, studies, analysis or reports; business models and strategies, "know how"; identification of creditors and debtors, as well as clients or potential partners, or subjects or entities that express interest; projects and operations of any nature proposed or in the study phase, term sheets, reports, market and data projections, along with the analyses and working documents, collections or comparisons, as well as information related to the judicial or arbitral procedures of the Republic in any country, or any other private information directly or indirectly related to the Purpose (hereinafter the "Information").

Any information provided by the Republic to the Firm prior to the execution of this Non-Disclosure Agreement shall be subject to the same confidentiality treatment as the information available after the celebration of this Non-Disclosure Agreement. The existence and content of this Agreement are also considered Information, and therefore the clauses stipulated herein are also applicable.

3. Exclusions - The term "Information" as used in this document does not include data or information that (a) is already known to the Firm prior to being transmitted by the Republic; (b) has become general public knowledge, unless such knowledge arises from the disclosure of the Information by the Firm in violation of its obligations under this Agreement; (c) has been legitimately received by the Firm from a third party without restriction on disclosure and without this third party having breached any non-disclosure obligation directly or indirectly extending to that third party; (d) has been approved for publication by written authorization from the Republic; (e) has been found: independently by the Firm without the use, directly or indirectly, of the Information received from the Republic; (f) has been developed independently by the Firm without reference to Information provided by the Republic; (g) a court of competent jurisdiction determines is not confidential information; or (h) is expressly identified in writing by the Republic as information that is no longer exclusive or confidential.

4. Non-disclosure obligation - The Firm will keep the Information confidential and will not disclose such Information, in whole or in part, to any person except (i) to its Representatives who need to know such Information in relation to the Purpose, (ii) to any other party who Republic has given the Firm its prior written consent to share Information with, or (iii) in those cases where this Agreement expressly allows it.

Before accessing the Information, Representatives of the Firm must be informed of the terms of this Non-Disclosure Agreement and agree not to disclose the Information, except as permitted or required under this Non-Disclosure Agreement. The Company shall be responsible for any breach of this Agreement by any of its Representatives.

The Information will be used solely in connection with the Purpose and will not be used in any other way.

The term "Representatives" refers to the respective directors, officers, partners, members, employees, advisors, including its accounting advisors and legal advisors, contracted or subcontracted staff, and other representatives of the Firm and its affiliates.

5. Compliance with a legal process – If the Firm or any of its Representatives is required to disclose any part of the Information by obligation of law, rule or regulation, to any governmental agency or regulatory body, or to any court of competent jurisdiction, pursuant to any legal, regulatory, administrative, governmental, judicial or similar procedure, whether by written order, subpoena or decree, the Firm shall notify the Republic in writing as soon as possible prior to disclosure, so that the Republic, at its sole expense, may seek a protection order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the terms of this Non-Disclosure Agreement. If the Republic requires such a protection or remedy order, the Firm will be obliged to provide the Republic with the collaboration it reasonably requests, at the sole expense of the Republic.

6. Property: Return of Information – No license or other intellectual property rights are granted, either expressly or implicitly, through the disclosure of Information to the Firm.

All Information, including tangible copies and computerized or electronic versions and summaries thereof, provided by the Republic, obtained or received by any means or medium, shall be the property of the Republic and may not be appropriated under any circumstances by the Firm, unless with express authorization, issued in writing by the Republic.

As soon as it is reasonably possible, after receipt of a written request from the Republic, the Firm shall, at its discretion, destroy or deliver to the Republic all the Information it has received from it, including all tangible materials that contain or incorporate the physical and/or electronic Information received from the Republic, together with copies, reproductions and summaries thereof, and, at the request of the Republic, confirmation confirming compliance with the provisions of this paragraph.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Firm may retain copies of the Information, including any notes, analyses, compilations, studies, and other documents or materials derived from, relating to, or reflecting such Information, in any form or medium in which it is held, as required to allow the Firm to comply with the applicable laws, rules and regulations, in order to defend or maintain any litigation. Any Information retained shall remain subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

7. Termination - This Non-Disclosure Agreement shall automatically terminate three years after the date of the Agreement. In any event, the obligations of each Party to keep the information it has received under this Agreement confidential shall survive even after such termination.

8. Independence of services - It is understood and agreed that nothing in this Agreement will prevent the Firm, its affiliates and related parties from providing services to third parties at any time, provided that the provisions of this Agreement concerning the limits and obligations with respect to the use of the Information received are complied with.

9. Relationship between the Parties - Except for specific obligations contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree that no agency, fiduciary, legal or other relationship shall exist or be established between the Republic and the Firm pursuant to this Agreement.

10. Language. This Agreement will be signed between the Parties in Spanish and all communications between the Parties will be in Spanish.

11. Interpretation - This Non-Disclosure Agreement may not be interpreted in any way as a definitive commitment of the Parties to entering into a contract or any kind of legal business, beyond the situations contained in the Purpose.

12. Amendment - This Non-Disclosure Agreement cannot be modified, supplemented or amended orally. Any amendment will require a written addendum signed by both Parties.

13. Assignment - Neither of the Parties may assign, endorse, give in trust or otherwise transfer in any way, in whole or in part, the rights or obligations provided for in this Non-Disclosure Agreement.

14. Applicable Law and Jurisdiction – This Non-Disclosure Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela on the date it was executed. Any dispute or disagreement that may arise regarding the execution, breach and/or interpretation of this Non-Disclosure Agreement must be resolved amicably through direct consultations or negotiations.

In witness whereof, both Parties sign two identical copies of this Non-Disclosure Agreement with the same legal effect, in the aforementioned place and date.
