EXHIBIT A

Response to Question 11

I am engaged in the general practice of law as a Partner in the registrant firm. Some of my work involves rendering advice and providing representation to the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela in the litigation initiated by Helmerich & Payne International Drilling Co. and Helmerich & Payne de Venezuela, C.A., in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia on September 23, 2011.

In addition, some of my work involves rendering advice and providing representation to the Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia in connection with certain proposed legislation.

Response to Question 12

The Registrant, as counsel to a party in the Helmerich & Payne litigation, intends, to the extent necessary, to request a meeting with the Solicitor General's office concerning appellate proceedings in the Helmerich & Payne litigation in which either United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit or the United States Supreme Court seeks the views of the United States on matters raised in the litigation. Any communications with the Solicitor General's Office or other agency officials taken in the course of the litigation will be limited to the respective interests of the United States and the Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, which is a party in the Helmerich & Payne litigation. While we believe that contacts with the U.S. Government offices regarding the aforementioned litigation qualify for the exception under FARA section 613(g) for "persons qualified to practice law," we nevertheless submit this registration in case the nature of such contacts might be deemed to exceed the scope of the exemption.

With respect to the Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia, the Registrant intends to seek one or more meetings with staff of Members of the United States Senate or staff of Members of the United States House of Representatives in connection with legal and policy issues raised by certain proposed legislation.
