Item 11

For Principal, retained Joe Goldstein Public Relations Inc., 15 E. 48th St., N.Y., N.Y., sports publicists, to work with Principal's Olympic Team and Olympic Information Center on Principal's participation in 1984 Olympics. Acted as liaison with firm but was not involved in firm's work at Olympic Information Center and Principal's personnel there; forwarded payments totaling $110,000. Helped arrange contact with Saudi soccer team officials for firm and Sports Illustrated writer and photographer going to Saudi Arabia.

Made contractual arrangements for Principal, acting through Saudi Development Committee headed by Ambassador, with Doyle Dane Bernbach International, Inc., 437 Madison Avenue, N.Y., N.Y. for public information campaign on and in connection with Saudi participation in 1984 Olympics. Registrant acted as informal liaison for Principal with Doyle Dane, including occasional comments and criticisms, but all matters were reviewed and decisions made by Principal, which had directly chosen Doyle Dane. Conceptualization, creative work, dissemination and other matters were Doyle Dane's, whose billings were paid directly to it by Principal.

For meetings with Principal's officials already scheduled directly by them, was requested occasionally to help work out - usually by phone - time and detailed arrangements. Occasionally forwarded to Principal requests by journalists, other individuals and groups for meetings with Embassy personnel, but decision whether and when to grant an appointment was Principal's, and notification generally was directly by it. Exception was meeting of

Ambassador with about a dozen members of the press decided on by Principal on very short notice in June, 1984, with registrant calling some of press and Principal's personnel calling others in order to expedite a briefing on shooting down of Iranian planes by Saudi aircraft over Arabian Gulf.

Brought to attention of Principal infrequent calls to registrant by members of media wanting to travel to Saudi Arabia and seeking help for access there, or to expedite an already pending visa application, or how to contact particular officials there most directly. Only specific visit on which help was given in arranging details (and then saw visitors as Registrant was already there on other business) was a Wall Street Journal team in the Kingdom in early December, 1984.

Item 14a (as 'Receipt') and 15 (as 'Disbursement')

Two checks of Principal totaling $110,000. transmitted in June and July, 1984, to Joe Goldstein Public Relations Inc. for its services for Principal per Item 11.
