

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

Dutton and Dutton, P.C.

Registrant escorted Saudi representative who on May 10, 1989 made calls on Congressman Wayne Owens, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Africa, the Near East and South Asia, Don Di'Marino and members of his staff, Donald Eiss, Joseph Papavoich and Irvin Fuller of the Trade Representative's Office, Saudi Desk Officer John Riddle and Assistant Secretary of State for Economic Affairs Eugene McAlister to brief them on Saudi industrial diversification and downstream developments of possible relevance in Saudi-U.S. relations. The meetings were arranged by Saudi Embassy officials, not registrant; and the Saudi representative conducted the discussions. Since the filing of June 12, 1989, it has been ascertained that Congresswoman Mary Rose Oakar was also talked with the same day on the same subject. Registrant filled in at the last moment for an Embassy staff member.
