10 October 2024

Excellency,

I am writing in response to the statement of the Greek Cypriot representative dated 9 September 2024, made during the Security Council open debate on “Strengthening Peacekeeping: Reflections for the Future”, which once again blatantly distorts facts pertaining to Cyprus. Greek Cypriot representatives have long been exploiting the absence of the Turkish Cypriot side at international platforms in order to mislead the international community and to divert the attention from their sole responsibility for the creation as well as the continuation of the Cyprus problem. Therefore, I am compelled to respond in writing in order to set the record straight.

At the outset, let me underline once again that none of the United Nations Security Council resolutions on Cyprus describe the legitimate and justified Turkish presence in the island, which is in line with the 1959 International Cyprus Treaties, as “occupation”. As is known, Guarantor Türkiye had to intervene after eleven years of Turkish Cypriot suffering at the hands of the Greek Cypriot militia, which culminated into the coup attempt organized by the military junta in Athens and its Greek Cypriot collaborators, aiming to annex the entire island to Greece (Enosis) and the total annihilation of Turkish Cypriot people. In view of the foregoing, as well as the current human sufferings inflicted by recent conflicts worldwide, it is without any doubt that today the Guarantee system in Cyprus is even more relevant and necessary than it has ever been.

Furthermore, it should be underlined that the Cyprus problem commenced in 1963, not in 1974, when the Greek Cypriot side forcibly usurped the title of the partnership Republic of Cyprus and expelled the Turkish Cypriot partner from all state organs. During the years from 1963 to 1974, a period that Greek Cypriot representatives have conveniently chosen to ignore, the Greek Cypriot militia, aided and encouraged by Greece, took part in an ethnic cleansing campaign against Turkish Cypriot people, known as the Akritis Plan, with the ultimate aim of achieving Enosis. This large-scale violence and ensuing gross human rights violations necessitated the UN Security Council to deploy UNFICYP in 1964 in order to stop the bloodshed and the atrocities perpetrated against the Turkish Cypriot people. The persistent attempts of the Greek Cypriot side to create a smokescreen before this reality by exploiting, to the fullest its assumed title, cannot change the historical facts of the island in relation to who is the aggressor and who is the victim in Cyprus. Notwithstanding the plethora of UN documents attesting to these crimes against humanity, the fact that there is no single reference to it in the said statement is a testament to the fact it is not fact-based, but another episode of the well-known Greek Cypriot propaganda machinery.

With regard to the comments made by the Greek Cypriot representative about UNFICYP's mandate, it should be recalled that the Brahimi Report on Peacekeeping Operations clearly states that "...consent of the local parties and impartiality [...] should remain the bedrock principles of peacekeeping." As specified in the UN Peacekeeping Operations Principles and Guidelines, in the absence of such consent, a UN peacekeeping operation risks becoming a party to the conflict and being drawn away from its inherent role of keeping the peace. In this context, in order to uphold the fundamental principles of successful peacekeeping operations and ensure that the unacceptable and unsustainable status quo on the island, where the Greek Cypriot side is treated as if it is the "legitimate government of the whole island" is not perpetuated, the UN must also seek and obtain the consent of the Turkish Cypriot side regarding the activities of UNFICYP in Cyprus.

Against this background, it is clear that the misleading remarks of the Greek Cypriot representative are not corroborated by legal and historical facts pertaining to the island. Thus, instead of levelling unfounded accusations, the Greek Cypriot side should adopt a sincere approach for the solution of the Cyprus issue on the basis of the current realities of the island, which would, inter alia, respect the inherent rights of the Turkish Cypriot people.

Availing myself of the present opportunity, I would also like to remind the Greek Cypriot administration that its counterpart is, and has always been, the Turkish Cypriot side, not Türkiye.

I would be grateful if the present letter is circulated as an official document of the Security Council.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
