Central Bank of the Republic of Turkey

Registrant assisted the Republic of Turkey in preparation for its negotiations with the Executive Branch with respect to the bilateral agreement between the United States Government and the Republic of Turkey with respect to certain textiles quotas. The assistance was in the form of legal advice and preparation of memoranda describing the legal framework for the agreement as well as the past practices and positions of the United States in agreements with other governments in roughly comparable situations.

Registrant also assisted the Republic of Turkey in ascertaining information from the Executive Branch and Congress with respect to the Jenkins Bill (and related textile legislation), and international trade issues. The assistance was in the form of legal advice, preparing memoranda describing the legislative issues from a United States legal perspective and international legal perspective and advice concerning contacting interested persons in the executive and legislative branches.

Registrant also assisted the Republic of Turkey in its negotiations with the Executive Branch with respect to the bilateral treaty between the United States and the Republic of Turkey for the Reciprocal Encouragement and Protection of Investment. The assistance was in the form of legal advice in connection with negotiations, including the preparation of detailed analysis and draft texts, review of other U.S. investment agreements, analysis of ICSID, UNITRAL and other arbitration options, review and analysis of U.S. model treaty, and participation in meetings with USG and World Bank officials.

Registrant also assisted the Republic of Turkey in a proceeding before the Department of Commerce and the International Trade Commission with respect to a countervailing duty and antidumping investigation of certain welded steel pipes and tubes. The assistance was in the form of legal advice in connection with the investigation and the preparation of draft correspondence and pleadings and an analysis of statistics regarding steel pipe and tube imports.

A summary of the dates of contacts, the names and titles of members of the Executive Branch who were contacted on behalf of the Republic of Turkey and a description of the matters being monitored are indicated on Schedule 1 to this Item 12.

Republic of Indonesia

Registrant assisted the Republic of Indonesia in its relations with the Executive Branch with respect to the bilateral agreement between the United States Government and the Republic of Indonesia in the implementation of Indonesia's becoming a signator to the Subsidies Code to GATT. The assistance was in the form of legal advice and preparing memoranda.

Registrant also assisted the Republic of Indonesia in ascertaining information from the Executive Branch and Congress with respect to the Jenkins Bill (and related textile legislation), and international trade issues. The assistance was in the form of legal advice, preparing memoranda describing the legislative issues from a United States legal perspective and international legal perspective and advice concerning contacting interested persons in the executive and legislation branches.

A summary of the dates of contacts, the names and titles of the members of the Executive Branch who were contacted on behalf of the Republic of Indonesia and a description of the matters being monitored are indicated in Schedule 2 to this Item 12.
