Dear Senator:

As you know, for the past several years we have represented the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office (TECRO), Taiwan's embassy equivalent in the United States. We hope you will consider our invitation to travel to Taiwan during one of the upcoming Senate recess periods: July 2 - 11 or August 6 - September 8, 1999.

From your state's economic perspective, a visit would highlight West Virginia's long-standing commitment to trade relations with Taiwan. In 1996 alone, Taiwan purchased $51,120,777 worth of products exported by West Virginia industries. In light of these figures, you may wish to invite the leaders of some of West Virginia's economic development and trade promotion agencies or other significant government officials to take the trip with you. Of course, your staff would be welcome on the trip, as well.

Recent political developments have made Taiwan an especially exciting place to visit. The coming recess periods would give you a chance to meet the key leaders in Taiwan, including President Lee Teng-hui, Taipei Mayor Ma Ying-jeou, and other government officials and business leaders. Additionally, the trip would allow you to speak to these leaders either formally or informally on important matters like cross-straits relations and trade with your state.

TECRO can accommodate all your travel plans as well as those of your key staff either from the U.S. or on a Taiwan leg of an already-scheduled visit to the region. Please contact me if you have any interest and we will start working on the logistics immediately. Many thanks for your kind attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Thomas H. Quinn

The Honorable Jeff Sessions

Dear Senator:

The most recent available trade statistics between Alabama and Taiwan were just released. In 1998, Taiwan purchased $54.7 million worth of products exported from Alabama industries. The main export industries to Taiwan from Alabama are chemicals and allied products, fabricated metal products, transportation equipment and industrial machinery.

From your state's economic perspective, a visit to Taiwan in the near future would highlight Alabama's long-standing commitment to trade relations with Taiwan. In light of these recent trade figures, you may want to invite the business leaders of some of the aforementioned industries to accompany you. A trade trip to Taiwan over the upcoming winter or April recess would further serve the purpose of shoring up future trade relations between Alabama and Taiwan, a move in the interest of Alabama's workers and industries.

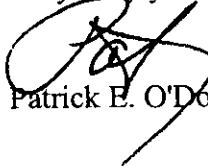

Recent political developments have made Taiwan an especially exciting place to visit. The upcoming presidential elections in the year 2000 would afford a timely opportunity to discuss cross-straight relations and to meet with President Lee Teng-hui.

At this time, we would also like to reassert our long-standing invitation for you, your spouse, and/or key staffers to attend dinner at Twin Oaks, the Washington, D.C. residence of Ambassador Chen.

Should you decide to travel to Taiwan, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office can accommodate all of your travel plans, as well as those of your staff. Please contact us if you are interested in a trip to Taiwan, and we can begin to work the logistics of the trip immediately. Also, please contact us if we might schedule a visit to Twin Oaks to meet with Ambassador Chen to have dinner and discuss Alabama's ongoing trade relationship with Taiwan.

Many thanks for your kind attention to this request.

Very truly yours,

Patrick E. O'Donnell
