Title

ATTACHMENT 1

In November, 1982, Registrant commenced his relationship with Dr. Karl Dobler, Industry Representative of the Canton of Neuchatel, Switzerland. The purpose of the collaboration was, and continues to be, to attract (primarily) U.S. companies to locate all or portions of their foreign business operations in the aforementioned Canton of Neuchatel, Switzerland. In furtherance of these purposes, Registrant has assisted in the development and preparation of various written materials. These materials, in character, are similar to "industrial development-type" material circulated by various governmental and quasi-governmental bodies for other parts of the world (e.g., Ireland, France, Taiwan). To the best of Registrant's knowledge, copies of all basic documentation have been filed with the Registration Section pursuant to Rule 401 of the Act by other registrants of the Foreign Principal.

In addition to participating in the preparation of and generally overseeing Neuchâtel's activities in the United States which involve the dissemination of documentation, Registrant generally oversees the activities of other independent registrants of the Foreign Principal, each of whom, to the best of Registrant's knowledge, disseminates documentation, (a) through mailings, personal meetings, telefax and telephone contact; and (b) as a result of independent inquiries from companies, lawyers, accountants, bankers, entrepreneurs and other interested persons that have become aware of Neuchatel's economic development program from advertisements and articles that have been written about it in various publications, from professional tax advisers, from Swiss Consular officials, or otherwise by "word-of-mouth", and also have initiated and/or pursued contacts with various companies, lawyers, accountants, bankers, entrepreneurs and other interested persons.

Registrant is a partner in the law firm of Thompson, Hine & Flory LLP. Although Registrant uses the infrastructure of said law firm, Registrant's activities on behalf of foreign principal, are separate from his activities on behalf of said firm, and said firm is in no way involved with, and has no economic interest in, the activities on behalf of the foreign principal. Said law firm invoices, and is reimbursed by, Registrant for out-of-pocket costs in the nature of postage, telephone, telefax, and photocopies, etc..

Messrs. Price Waterhouse have been engaged and, from time to time, paid by the Registrant and/or the Canton of Neuchâtel (a) to provide a written independent analysis of some of the ways in which U.S. companies can avail themselves, under current tax laws and regulations of the benefits of Neuchatel's program; and (b) to provide technical tax advice relative to Neuchatel's fiscal program.

From time to time, Price Waterhouse and other professional persons and entities have suggested that their clients investigate the possibility of locating business operations in Neuchatel (as they do with respect to many other localities throughout the world), and from time to time, Registrant has recommended that companies with whom Registrant has been in touch contact Price Waterhouse or such other professionals to obtain an independent appraisal of their technical tax planning needs. However, as professionals who must maintain their integrity for providing unbiased, independent advice, it is neither appropriate nor accurate to characterize such persons or entities as "agents" of Registrant or otherwise as being active on behalf of Registrant's foreign principal.

Clark, Schaeffer, Hackett & Co. has provided and continues to provide accounting, tax planning and tax return preparation services for Registrant. Said company is not actively involved in any promotion activities on behalf of Registrant's foreign principal.
