Footnote: Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

STATEMENT OF WORK
Attachment 1

Edelman Deliverables 2011: Core and Non-Core Program Elements

The 2011 U.S. program will deliver the specific services identified below, agreed by Bell Pottinger and Edelman as central to the EDB's success. The workscope will also need to be flexible enough to transcend basic program requirements, to accommodate breaking news, schedule changes, and developments not anticipated at the program outset.

At the end of each month, as part of its regular reporting format, Edelman will submit an update, ensuring that progress in achieving the program's targets is properly tallied and accounted for. Any items not listed below will be considered outside the Scope of Services. If Client expands the Scope of Services, increases the time retained, or additional resources are necessary to achieve the program targets listed below/overall program objectives, then the amount of additional time will be agreed upon and an Addendum will be attached to the current Statement of Work.
