

From: [REDACTED]
Subject: Interview opportunity with COP30 Special Envoy for Indigenous Peoples
Date: Saturday, October 11, 2025 5:25:00 PM

Hi [REDACTED]

I'm reaching out on behalf of the COP30 team and COP30 Special Envoy for Indigenous Peoples, Sinéia do Vale.

Sinéia would be pleased to speak with you ahead of COP30 in Belém next month about Indigenous and local community participation in this year's COP process, and how the COP30 Presidency is amplifying their voices and placing people at the center of decision-making.

If you're interested in speaking with Sinéia, let us know, and we'd be happy to coordinate scheduling.

Her bio is included below for more information.

Thanks,
[REDACTED]

+++

SINÉIA DO VALE
Indigenous Peoples

Wapichana Indigenous leader from the Serra da Lua Indigenous Territory who co-chairs the UNFCCC Indigenous Caucus since 2024. She coordinates the Territorial, Environmental and Climate Change Management Department at the Indigenous Council of Roraima while actively participating in the Local Communities and Indigenous Peoples Platform. With over a decade of climate advocacy experience, she serves on multiple national and international committees. She holds an environmental management degree from Cathedral College and is completing a master's in Sustainability at the University of Brasília.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] message and its contents are confidential. If you received this message in error, please inform the sender and then delete it. For information on how Edelman uses personal data and your rights, please see our Privacy Policy. Please reply to this email to notify us if you do not want us to contact you with information similar to the subject of this email communication.

This material is distributed by Daniel J. Edelman, Inc. on behalf of the United Nations Development Program on behalf of COP30 Presidency, Brazil. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.