His Excellency Géza Jeszenszky
Ambassador of Hungary to the United States
Embassy of Hungary
3910 Shoemaker Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

Dear Ambassador Jeszenszky:

We are very pleased that the Embassy of Hungary ("Embassy") has engaged Collier Shannon Scott, PLLC, to represent the Embassy in connection with foreign operations legislation including providing assistance and counsel to the Embassy in developing appropriate legislative and administrative strategies relating to the Embassy's interests. This letter sets forth the terms upon which we will provide professional services to the Embassy, in connection with this matter, as required by the rules of the District of Columbia Bar Association.

Fees for Professional Services

We will provide our services at a monthly retainer of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

We try always to manage your work to produce the highest quality services at a reasonable cost. Where it is to your advantage to do so, we may utilize the services of other Collier Shannon lawyers, government relations specialists, legal assistants, secretaries, and clerks in the firm. Work assignments will be made, whenever possible, in a way that maximizes our effectiveness and time efficiency. Our goal is to provide high quality professional services to you cost-effectively.

The duration of this agreement is one year and may be renewed thereafter. The Embassy may terminate this Agreement and the Firm similarly reserves the right to terminate this representation. Such termination by either party shall be in writing.

We maintain files for each of our clients on the matters we are handling on their behalf. If a matter is concluded and you no longer wish for us to retain the files, we will return them to you at your request. We maintain files on a retention schedule. In the event you do not instruct us regarding disposition of your old or inactive files, or we are not able to contact you to receive instructions, this letter will confirm that you authorize us to dispose of inactive files without further instructions. If you do not authorize us to do so without further specific authorization from you, please notify us in writing.

Reimbursement of Expenses

In addition to our monthly retainer, we will bill you for items of costs and expense incurred in our work on your matters that exceed $200.00 in any one month. Items that will be charged separately include: copying; messenger services; filing fees; postage, courier, and express services; long distance telephone calls; telecopying; computerized legal research; computer-assisted document preparation; support staff overtime, when necessary; and similar items. The Firm will not incur costs and expenses, as defined in this letter, that exceed $200.00 in any one month without approval and authorization by the Embassy.

Statements for Fees and Expenses

Each month, we will deliver statements for fees and costs for services rendered during the preceding month. Services and costs not posted as of the monthly closing date will appear on a subsequent statement. Recognizing that most services are performed outside of the view of the client, we typically describe the services performed in detail, so that you will understand fully the work we have done. The monthly retainer shall be due on the 15th day of each month.

If you have any question about or objections to a statement, we will be pleased to discuss it with you and to provide any additional explanation of our work that you may require. It is essential that if you do have questions or objections, however, that you advise us promptly so we may resolve any difficulties as quickly as possible.

Our firm's policy when undertaking work for a new client is to require an advance retainer payment against future invoices. We are not requesting a retainer from the Embassy. Wire transfers should be directed to Riggs Bank, N.A. of Washington, DC, as follows:

Riggs Bank, N.A.
Washington Harbour Office
3000 K Street, NW
Washington, DC 20090

CSS Operating Acct. #17217847

Filing Requirements

The Embassy understand that the Foreign Agents Registration Act requires that all persons acting in the United States to affect United States policies on behalf of a foreign principal must register with the United States Department of Justice (subject to certain exemptions not applicable in this instance) and that the Firm must register under this law regarding its activities on behalf of the Embassy. The Embassy further understands that, by law, the Firm must advise the United States Department of Justice twice yearly of all contacts made with United States government employees, all monies received by the Firm from or on behalf of the Embassy.

The Embassy understands that the Federal Lobbying Disclosure Act requires that all persons engaged in and paid to influence legislative action must also file a report to register with the Clerk of the United States House of Representatives and the Secretary of the United States Senate before "doing anything in furtherance of such object." The Firm, on behalf of the Embassy, will be filing these reports twice a year.

Waiver of Potential Conflicts

We have performed a conflicts check and are aware of no work we have done or are doing for another client that would preclude us from representing the Embassy.

In undertaking our representation of you in this matter, we request an advance agreement that Collier Shannon Scott, PLLC, will not be disqualified from representing interests adverse to you in matters that are not substantially related to the matters on which Collier Shannon has been retained by the Embassy.

This waiver is not intended to, and would not, permit Collier Shannon to represent interests directly adverse to you in matters that are substantially related to the work done for you. Nor is it intended that there be, and there would not be, any waiver of your right not to have confidences or secrets that you transmit to Collier Shannon disclosed to any third party or used against you. We would, of course, hold such information that you provide to us in strict confidence.

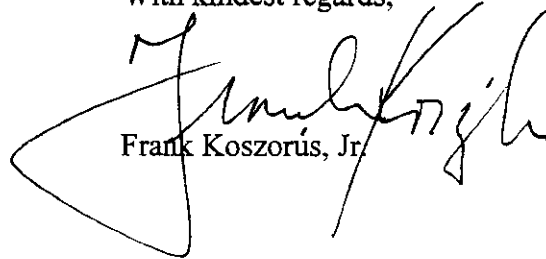

Accordingly, by engaging us in this representation, the Embassy agrees that it waives any objection to Collier Shannon representing other clients, unless the other representation would involve Collier Shannon in representing an interest directly adverse to your interests on matters that are substantially related to those on which Collier Shannon represents you.
