CONSULTING AGREEMENT

CONSULTING AGREEMENT ("Agreement"), dated as of July 15, 1991, by and between Crowell & Moring International L.P. ("Consultant"), doing business as "C&M International, Ltd.", a Delaware limited partnership having offices at 1001 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, #1275, Washington, DC 20004, and Negev Phosphates, Ltd. (NPL), having offices at P.O. Box 4029, Ashdod, Israel.

SCOPE

The scope of the services to be provided by Consultant are as follows:

1. Phase I. Working toward obtaining:
 - A. a decision that confirms the existence of authority, or
 - B. action that provides authority,for the review of the injury determination in the countervailing duty case on phosphoric acid from Israel without the cumulation of any injurious effects of other countries' exports, Consultant will:
 - i) examine options, and
 - ii) assess the potential for success of such options for, obtaining or confirming authority for such a review. Consultant will also conduct initial work toward the objective.

Prior to the date which is six weeks from the effective date, Consultant will report to Contractor on the status of work performed under Phase I.

2. Phase II

Consultant will continue to work toward obtaining confirmation of, or action providing, authority for an injury review without cumulation. Prior to the date which is twelve weeks from the effective date, Consultant will provide Contractor a second status report.

3. Option for Concluding Work after Phase I or Phase II.

Work shall automatically proceed to Phase II and Phase III unless either Consultant or Contractor decides, after consulting with the other before the end of the current phase, that further work should not proceed. Phase II and Phase III, or simply Phase III, of the contract would be cancelled upon provision of written notice to the other party.

4. Phase III

Consultant will continue to work toward obtaining the objective of the contract.

5. The scope of Consultant's work under this Contract does not cover petitioning for such a review.

6. Phase IV

Following a decision, opinion or action, whether legislative or administrative, that authoritatively confirms or provides the ability to seek a review of the injury attributed to Israeli articles in the subject case without cumulation, Consultant shall provide a final report that describes in detail the decision, opinion or action, the options for Contractor to pursue the necessary action to implement such decision, including the authority for such action, and an assessment of the likelihood of success of each option.

7. Payment

Payment by Contractor to Consultant shall be in four installments. The installments shall be due and payable as follows:

$10,000.00 on the effective date of the contract.

$7,500.00 six weeks after the effective date.

$7,500.00 twelve weeks after the effective date.

$35,000.00 upon completion of Phases I-IV.

Should cancellation of Phase II and/or Phase III occur pursuant to paragraph 3, payment of installment(s) thereafter shall also be cancelled.

8. Consultant will retain for Contractor the services of C. Michael Hathaway, of the Law Firm of Crowell and Moring, Washington, DC and Dan Halperin, IFTIC, Ltd., to work with Consultant for the completion of work on this Contract.

9. The Contract amount is inclusive of expenses other than those associated with international travel which shall be billed separately. International travel shall be limited to that necessary, and shall be subject to prior approval by Contractor. It is not expected that more than two such trips will be necessary nor that total expenses therefore will exceed $8000.00.

10. The terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the District of Columbia and the United States of America.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the parties have executed and delivered this Agreement with legal and binding effect as of July 15, 1991.
