Dear Mr. Wang:

Thank you for your fax of January 21.

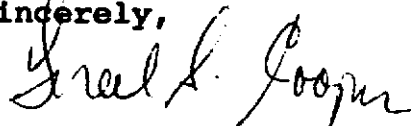

Attached is a copy of the consulting agreement between C&M International and TAMI, incorporating all of the changes you suggested in your January 21 fax to us.

As you requested, we deleted the sentence asking TAMI to ensure that we are meeting your expectations regarding fulfillment of the terms of the agreement. We hope, nevertheless, that if you have expectations that you believe are not being met, you will so inform us immediately so that we can deliver to you the information you seek.

In anticipation of your agreement, we are now collecting information about the health of the U.S. machine tool industry, which we will summarize in a report for you at the end of this month.

We have sent the originals to you via DHL. Please have Mr. K.C. Chuang sign both and return one original to us for our files. With best regards. We very much look forward to working with you and your staff.

Sincerely,

Doral S. Cooper

Dear Mrs. Cooper:

We are delighted to inform you that our chairman has signed the consulting agreement and we will return one original by separate cover via air mail.

It is really nice to start working with you. We are looking forward to the excellent & concrete performance you will do in the following days.

Besides, please draw a letter stating the unfair conditions as follows Taiwan machine tools manufacturers is being suffered to the governor of Wisconsin in the name of our chairman. Hope the governor could forward the letter to the Minister of DOC and do us a favour to improve the unfair conditions.

1. USA did not monitor the imports, market share and product mix of each VRA product from all territories.

2. According to the USA-ROC VRA and USA-ISRAEL Free Trade Agreement, USA customs did not refuse the entry of those machining centers reexported from Israel, but ask us to pay back the quotas.

3. ect.

Thank you in advance for your assistance and forward to your early reply.

With best regards,

C. C. Wang

CONSULTING AGREEMENT

C&M International Ltd. will advise the Taiwan Association of Machinery Industry (TAMI) regarding the extension, termination, or modification of the Taiwan machine tool voluntary restraint agreement (VRA). In this regard, C&M International will provide the following services:

A. Monitoring

(1) Collect statistics relating to imports of machine tools (for major suppliers, products, and shares of the U.S. market);

(2) Collect information regarding the health of the U.S. machine tool industry (trends in orders, investment, employment, and other key variables);

(3) Follow trends in Japanese investment and production of machine tools in the United States;

(4) Identify the key American end-users of Taiwanese machine tools and parts, and the importance of Taiwanese machine tools and parts to those end-users' competitiveness.

B. Strategy

(1) Design and help implement a strategic plan for the elimination of the VRA on Taiwanese machine tools;

(2) Work with third countries that buy Taiwanese and Japanese machine tool parts and kits and would be affected by an extension of the VRAs;

(3) Work with government officials who are responsible for the machine tool issue to support positions consistent with TAMI's interests.

C. Reports to TAMI

C&M International will provide TAMI with monthly reports describing our activities, and, as appropriate, the activities of the U.S. machine tool industry, the Congress and the Administration regarding the machine tool VRAs.

If TAMI desires additional information, TAMI must so inform C&M International.

D. Billing Procedure

1. Over the Contract Period (January 1, 1991 through December 31, 1991) C & M International shall bill TAMI monthly a fee of US$4,000.00, plus normal disbursements for photocopying, postage, computerized research, travel, and long distance telephone charges. Normal reimbursable expenses shall not exceed US$6,000 per year. Any special disbursements for (1) overseas travel between the U.S. and the ROC and (2) any single item of out-of-pocket expense in excess of US$1,000 shall not be undertaken unless they are specifically approved in advance by TAMI. Expenses shall be separately itemized on the billing statement.

2. At the conclusion of the Contract Period, if the U.S. Government (1) does not enforce a voluntary export agreement on Taiwanese machine tools and (2) does not impose unilateral import restrictions on Taiwanese machine tools, TAMI shall pay C&M International the additional sum of US$20,000.

E. Termination

TAMI and C&M International Ltd. shall at all times have the unilateral right to terminate this agreement upon 30 calendar days prior written notice, provided that should TAMI terminate this agreement all fees (and disbursements made on its behalf) through the month of termination and together with the sum referred to in paragraph D.2 shall be paid within 60 calendar days of the effective date of termination.
