¹Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

A G R E E M E N T

1. This agreement is made on 8th Day of January, 1990 between the Embassy of the Republic of Turkey in Washington D.C. (hereinafter referred to as "the Embassy") and the firms of McAuliffe, Kelly, Raffaelli and Siemens and Thompson and Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Firms").
2. The parties have agreed as follows :
 - a. The firms shall assist the Embassy in promoting greater appreciation and recognition of Turkey's role as a friend and key ally of the United States
 - b. As the maintenance and continued growth of understanding and cooperation between Turkey and the United States is largely dependent upon the projection of a fair and accurate image of Turkey in this country, the Firms will help the Embassy to ensure that Turkey presents such a correct image in the United States with her economic strides, increasing business opportunities, vast touristic resources and dynamic modern social structure. In this context particular emphasis shall be given to the promotion of bilateral trade between Turkey and the United States in agricultural, textile and other products and in the form of joint-ventures.
 - c. The firms shall endeavor to counter any efforts detrimental to the Turkish-U.S. relationship.
 - d. In pursuit of the above objectives, the Firms shall conduct meetings with the Members and staff of the United States Senate, House of Representatives and Administration officials.
 - e. The Firms shall advise and assist the Embassy in dealing with pending legislation and other matters requiring immediate attention.

f. The Firms shall prepare substantive analyses, reports and statements for use by the Embassy in the production of materials for the media.

g. The Firms shall support the Embassy's public relations program through contacts with commentators and other media personalities, business and community leaders, legislators, and policy makers. The Firms shall provide journalists and opinion-makers with timely and accurate briefings, fact-sheets, and analyses regarding matters affecting the U.S.-Turkish relationship.

3. In compensation for these services, the Firms shall receive a fee totaling $ 200.000 for the period of three months. Half of this fee shall be paid on January 8, 1990 and the remaining half on March 8, 1990. Costs relating to special projects requested or approved by the Embassy other than the services indicated above, will be reimbursed to the Firms separately. All special projects proposed by the Firms shall be subject to written acceptance by the Embassy. No amount will be paid for any proposed special project refused by the Embassy.

4. The Firms shall carry out all its activities in the framework of this Agreement under the direction and supervision of the Embassy. The Embassy will also coordinate the activities of the Firms with those of any other lobbying/PR companies the Embassy has retained or may retain for similar purposes.

5. This Agreement shall take effect in January 8, 1990 and shall continue through April 8, 1990. However, unless written notice to the contrary is given either by the Firms or by the Embassy at least 15 days prior to April 8, 1990, the Agreement shall automatically be extended for an additional three-month period at the same rate of $ 200.000.
