With Labor Day behind us, we are back in full swing. Today we hosted a conference "Investing in #Friendship" on the occasion of the visit of Achim Dercks, Deputy Managing Director of the German Chamber of Commerce and Industry, to Washington, DC.

According to the Bureau of Economic Analysis, investment from Germany in the U.S. stands at almost $660bn. German companies contribute to the economic wellbeing of communities across the U.S. - from California to Virginia, from Illinois to Texas. They employ around 1 million Americans directly.

Fretrade is the backbone for investment. Let's integrate the transatlantic market place even deeper to the mutual benefit of both sides of the Atlantic. 🍷

Thank you to our panelists and their insights: Achim Dercks, Mark Tomkins, David Kelley, Michael Weber

DIHK, Virginia Economic Development Partnership, Fairfax County Economic Development Authority, German Chambers of Commerce Abroad \(AHK\), Thomas B.

#GermanBusinessintheUSA continues to impress! Check out the latest numbers from the Representative of German Industry and Trade online tool "German Business in the USA"

Some key data:

- ◆ German #FDI has more than doubled over the last decade
- ◆ German-owned companies in the U.S. create 871,400 jobs
- ◆ Of these jobs, roughly 35% are in the #manufacturing sector

See more impressive numbers and a state-by-state analysis
