Holiday Magic in Paradise

Our island shines bright during the holidays. Kick off the fun at Rockin' Around the City Tree in Hamilton with lively performances, free hot chocolate, and photos with Santa. You can also wander festival-lit lanes in St. George's during the National Trust Christmas Walkabout, where historic homes, museums, and churches are dressed for the season. If festive cheer with an island twist is calling your name, you'll find it here.

New Year, New Beginnings

Ring in the New Year the Bermudian way. Begin with an oceanfront dinner, then join the lively celebration in St. George's as the iconic Onion Drop lights up the night sky. The next morning, set your intentions for the year ahead with sunrise yoga or spend a peaceful day on the water, surrounded by incredible island views.

Bermuda Marathon Weekend

Start the year with a runcation in paradise. The Chubb Bermuda Triangle Challenge brings three days of racing set against ocean views and colourful island streets. Choose one event or conquer all three for serious bragging rights. It's an active traveller's dream, and pure Bermuda energy from start to finish!
