The advisor will work with members of the United States Congress and the Executive Branch to increase the access of Turkish products to the U.S.A.

The advisor will develop a long range starategic plan which will enable Turkish exporters to increase their share of U.S. market.

The advisor will assist in interpretation of agreements, and work with the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements to assure proper admimistration.

The advisor will introduce individuals and develop plans for effective communication with industry importers and retailers associations within U.S.A. which share similar legislative goals.

The advisor will develop a coordinated strategy for close cooperation with buyers and sellers of textile & apparel products.

The advisor will inform the Association about the position of other exporting countries and the results of negotiations between U.S.A. and governments of such countries.

The advisor will prepare a paper indicating what steps the Turkish exporters should take to avoid countervailing and anti-dumping duties.

The advisor will also prepare a paper which indicates what Turkish exporters should consider in order to be able to export smoothly to U.S.A.

There will be four meetings annually, a minimum of two to be held in Istanbul, and the expenses of Mr. Houston for the meetings which will take place in Turkey will be paid by the Association. Representatives of the Association will be able to use the facilities of World Trade Link's office in U.S.A. for the meetings in U.S.A.

The Association is allowed to seek advise of the law firm of Bogle and Gates when the Association requires, or any conflict arises in trade. Additional fees will be charged for these services by Bogle and Gates.

If an extra firm or person is needed, in parallel to the increase of the volume of Turkish exports, extra expenses will be met by the Association.

For all of the above mentioned services the Association will pay 5.000 $ monthly. The payment will be done quarterly in advance and the first payment will start October, 1, 1989.
