IT IS HEREBY AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Purpose of the Agreement

The task of the Consultant is to assist SGS in his independent capacity, with respect to the promotion and development of SGS contacts in the USA with the objective of securing a contract for the inspection and sampling of textiles and textile products in the country of supply and which are destined for the USA.

2. Confidentiality

The Consultant undertakes to keep confidential whatever information may be communicated to him during this Agreement and not to disclose it to third parties unless expressly authorized in writing by SGS.

Moreover, the Consultant shall promptly pass on to SGS whatever information comes into his possession which affects SGS's business and he shall not disclose same to any person whose interests may be incompatible with those of SGS.

3. Restriction of Activities

During this Agreement, the Consultant shall refrain from any activity which might create a conflict of interest or be incompatible with SGS's activities.

4. Fees

The Consultant will be entitled to a fee of USD 50.000.- (fifty thousand U.S. Dollars) to cover the first three calendar months of the agreement and USD 10.000.-- (ten thousand U.S. Dollars) per calendar month for the following six months. This fee shall constitute the entire remuneration of the Consultant and his associates and shall cover any expenses incurred by them, except those approved in advance in writing by SGS.

Payments of the fees shall be made in U.S. Dollars at the end of each month during this Agreement.

Progress on the project will be reviewed two weeks prior to the end of the first three months and if satisfactory, the six month agreement will come into force. Further progress reviews will take place at three months and six months. If at the end of that period the agreement has to be extended further, the fee will be renegotiated.

Should any exclusive agreement be signed between the US Administration and SGS in respect of textile monitoring during the period of the agreement, then a success fee will be payable and will form the subject of a separate agreement.

5. Status

Since the Consultant is not employed by SGS, the Consultant or any of his consultants will not be covered by any SGS insurance programme and will make his own arrangements in that regard. Any employment income or other taxes and contributions due on the fees paid to the Consultant hereunder are his responsibility. The Consultant hereby agrees to hold SGS harmless from any such taxes and contributions which may be assessed in connection with fees paid to him hereunder.

Under no circumstances shall the Consultant be entitled to bind SGS without having previously obtained formal written permission from SGS to do so.

6. Duration of the Agreement

This Agreement shall start on May 1, 1991 and shall terminate on July 31, 1991, unless renewed by the parties for further six-months period by a written amendment hereto.

The Consultant acknowledges that, on termination of this Agreement, his relationship with SGS shall come to an end, with the exception of his commitment concerning confidentiality, set forth in section 2 and that he shall not, by reason of such termination, be entitled to any further compensation.

7. Assignment

The Consultant shall not, without SGS written consent, assign or transfer his rights and obligations hereunder to any person.

8. Use of Other Consultants

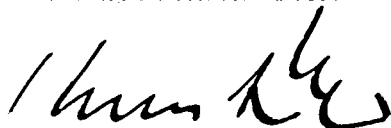

This agreement does not prevent SGS employing other consultants on this project, in which case the beneficiary of this agreement shall be informed.

9. Governing Law and Disputes

This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with Swiss law and the parties attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Swiss courts.

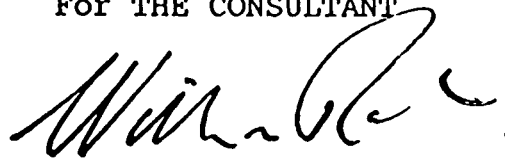

IN WITNESS whereof this Agreement is signed in Geneva, in duplicate, on May 1, 1991.
