III- ACTIVITIES
Appendix B
Reporting Period 7/1/94 - 1/31/95
Washington & Christian (W&C) (Registration No. 4569)

The Federal Republic of Nigeria W&C continues to provide this client with advice and counsel with regard to the following issues: global perceptions of the process of democratizing Nigeria, the reactions and responses to Nigeria from the United States of America (hereinafter the United States or the US), Congressional members as well as members of the Clinton Administration. W&C also assists this client in strategically planning the formulation, implementation and dissemination of political and economic information.

While this relationship has been terminated (effective 2/28/95), W&C has assisted this client with its Nigerian Law Reformation Project (NLRP). The NLRP is designed to assist Nigeria, bring its policies up to international standards. Specifically, W&C held meetings with U.S. businesses with similar interest in Nigeria and held meetings with both United States officials and Nigerian officials in order to conduct research, develop concepts and produce reports and other advice to our client.

In addition to the NLRP, W&C has provided media assistance to the Government for it to use within Nigeria as it strives to maintain social and economic stability. In preparation for representation of Nigeria, W&C has: conducted research, held meetings with U.S. businesses with similar interest in Nigeria, met with various US officials, met with various Nigerian officials, summarized press clippings, hired consultants and gathered information from the US Congress, particularly in light of the changed climate on Capitol Hill.

National Fertilizer Company of Nigeria W&C has not engaged in any activities on behalf of this client during this reporting period.

The Government of Antigua and Barbuda W&C continues to provide this client with advice and counsel regarding foreign policy relations with the U.S. While no specific projects other than those listed on our previous report dated 9/30/94 have come up, we continue to make ourselves available on an as needed basis.

The Republic of Cameroon W&C continues to provide this client with advice and counsel regarding foreign and economic policy relations with the U.S. W&C is currently working with this client to develop strong economic relationships between Cameroon and the U.S. W&C also spends a great deal of time keeping this client informed with legislative and media issues that may affect this client. W&C often assembles and dispatches information to this client about stories in the press that refer either directly or indirectly to this client; this has included the compilation and translation of current articles and government reports.

The Gabonese Republic W&C continues to provide this client with advice and counsel regarding foreign and economic policy relations with the United States. W&C is currently working with this client to develop strong economic relationships between Gabon and the United States including, presentation of information to media associations as well as assisting the country in the formation of the United States/Gabon Chamber of Commerce. W&C also helped to facilitate meetings with Gabonese officials during the United Nations General Assembly.

W&C also spends a great deal of time keeping this client informed with legislative and media issues that may affect this client. W&C often assembles and dispatches information to this client about stories in the press that refer either directly or indirectly to this client; this has included the compilation and translation of current articles and government reports.

W&C also assisted this client with developing video film coverage on environmental issues that was shipped to and broadcasted in the country of Gabon.

Sao Tome e Principe W&C has assisted this client with advise and counsel regarding its relations with the U.S. While representation of this principle has been limited, W&C has conducted meetings with U.S. officials on behalf of this client.
