Reporting Period 8/1/95 - 1/31/96
Washington & Christian (W&C) (Registration No. 4569)

While W&C originally decided that this relationship would terminate (effective 2/28/95), unexpected events require continued representation of this client for an indefinite period of time. Accordingly, W&C has assisted this client with its Nigerian Law Reformation Project (NLRP). The NLRP is designed to assist Nigeria, bring its policies up to international standards. Specifically, W&C held meetings with United States businesses with similar interest in Nigeria and held meetings with both United States officials and Nigerian officials in order to conduct research, develop concepts and produce reports and other advice to our client related to this project.

FARA
III- ACTIVITIES
Appendix C
Reporting Period 8/1/95 - 1/31/96
Washington & Christian (W&C) (Registration No. 4569)

The Federal Republic of Nigeria

W&C continues to provide this client with advice and counsel with regard to the following issues: global perceptions of the process of democratizing Nigeria, the reactions and responses to Nigeria from the United States of America (hereinafter the United States), Congressional members as well as members of the Clinton Administration. W&C also assists this client in strategically planning the formulation, implementation and dissemination of political and economic information.

While W&C originally decided that this relationship would terminate (effective 2/28/95), unexpected events require continued representation of this client for an indefinite period of time. Accordingly, W&C has assisted this client with its Nigerian Law Reformation Project (NLRP). The NLRP is designed to assist Nigeria, bring its policies up to international standards. Specifically, W&C held meetings with United States businesses with similar interest in Nigeria and held meetings with both United States officials and Nigerian officials in order to conduct research, develop concepts and produce reports and other advice to our client related to this project.

In addition to the NLRP, W&C has provided media assistance to the Government for it to use within Nigeria as it strives to maintain social and economic stability. In preparation for representation of Nigeria, W&C has: conducted research, held meetings with United States businesses with similar interest in Nigeria, met with various US officials, met with various Nigerian officials, summarized press clippings, hired consultants and gathered information from the US Congress, particularly in light of the changed climate on Capitol Hill.

National Fertilizer Company of Nigeria

W&C has not engaged in any activities on behalf of this client during this reporting period.

The Government of Antigua and Barbuda

W&C continues to provide this client with advice and counsel regarding foreign policy relations with the United States. While not executed within the reporting period, Washington & Christian executed a contract with Antigua and Barbuda on 2/5/96 regarding the development and implementation of a National Narcotics and Money Laundering Control Policy. This project will include, inter alia, public policy development, project development and the organization of bilateral discussions with U.S. officials. [See Attachment]

The Gabonese Republic

W&C continues to provide this client with advice and counsel regarding foreign and economic policy relations with the United States. W&C is currently working with this client to develop strong economic relationships between Gabon and the United States including, presentation of information to media associations as well as assisting the country in the formation of the United States/Gabon Chamber of Commerce.

W&C also spends a great deal of time keeping this client informed of legislative and media issues that may affect this client. W&C often assembles and dispatches information to this client about stories in the press that refer either directly or indirectly to this client; this has included the compilation and translation of current articles and government reports.

Sao Tome e Principe

W&C has assisted this client with advice and counsel regarding its relations with the United States. While representation of this principal has been limited, W&C has conducted meetings with United States officials on behalf of this client.

Republic of Guinea

W&C has, and will continue to provide advice and counsel to this client regarding foreign and economic policy relations with the United States. W&C is also working to assist this client in developing strong economic relationships between Guinea and the United States. In addition to the foregoing, W&C will work to keep this client informed with relevant legislative and media issues. W&C will also assist this client with developing video film coverage on political issues to be broadcast in Guinea.
