Attachment 22A

The materials distributed by WSGR on behalf of UMC included a binder of materials which set forth the factual basis for UMC's position concerning a dispute between Nintendo of America, Inc. and UMC. The dispute concerned Nintendo's allegations regarding UMC's manufacture of certain electronic components and importation of those components into the United States. Copies of the binder were submitted to the U.S. Trade Representative's office as well as to the offices of the members of Congress identified in item 12, above.

WSGR no longer has copies of these binders because the partner responsible for these activities, Peter Courture, left the firm after the time period covered by this filing. It is our understanding that Mr. Courture took all files related to this matter with him when he left the firm. We have contacted Mr. Courture, and he no longer has any of the materials described here.
