

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

III-ACTIVITIES

11. Outline of Program Activities Carried out by SmithMcCabeLtd. on behalf of the Government of the Republic of Indonesia During the Period January 1 to June 30, 1993

The objective of this program is to develop and carry out a communications program to help improve understanding of Indonesia by addressing issues and taking advantage of international opportunities to communicate Indonesia's economic development record. Program support occurs in the United States and internationally. During this reporting period our work included:

- Advising Indonesian ambassadors in Europe on the development and implementation of external communications activities;
- Monitoring international press coverage of Indonesia and issues that could impact international economic relations;
- Responding to specific research requests by client representatives;
- Supporting the visit of the Foreign Minister to Washington, D.C. through the preparation of briefing materials and through the organization of speaking platform on April 29 at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace; and
- Providing support regarding a visit to Indonesia by Louis Kraar of Fortune Magazine.
