Mr. Kazunori Iizuka
President
JETRO, New York
1221 Avenue of the Americas
New York, New York 10020

Dear Mr. Iizuka:

This is to confirm that Alan Smith International will provide your office with a report on the attitudes of American opinion leaders, major companies, and industries towards various developments in Latin America, including a possible expansion of NAFTA.

As agreed, JETRO will pay the sum of $15,000, inclusive of all fees and expenses for this report. An invoice for this amount is attached.

Alan Smith International further agrees to answer any questions that may arise about the report, to provide supplementary information, and to conduct follow up research as requested without cost, provided the scope of any additional work is reasonable.

In performing the duties under this agreement, Alan Smith International will rely exclusively on publicly available or otherwise properly authorized information or sources. JETRO prohibits and, under no circumstances, authorizes solicitation, collection, acceptance or receipt of any kind of unauthorized trade secret or any proprietary information by Alan Smith International in performing its services under this agreement.

JETRO reserves the right to unilaterally terminate the agreement, without compensation, if JETRO determines that any information or material has been, or is about to be, obtained in an improper manner, or in violation of any third party rights, by Alan Smith International in performing its duties under this agreement. In performing the services under this agreement, Alan Smith International will strictly adhere to all applicable statutes and regulations, including the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended.

Please signify your agreement to this letter by signing and dating the enclosed copy and returning it to me. The original is for your files. We look forward to providing you with this report and working with JETRO on this assignment.

Agreed:

Sincerely,

Mr. Kazunori Iizuka
President, JETRO, New York

Alan Smith
