13 This statement shall be signed by the individual agent, if the registrant is an individual, or by a majority of those partners, officers, directors or persons performing similar functions, if the registrant is an organization, except that the organization can, by power of attorney, authorize one or more individuals to execute this statement on its behalf.

Item 11, Page 4.

The Federal Republic of Nigeria. Registrant (R) continued to provide the Foreign Principal (F/P) with strategies and to plan activities to promoted human rights and democracy in several of the F/P's major cities, including :Lagos, Abuja, Ibadan, Kaduna and Kano. Registrant continued to proved F/P with public information regarding U.S. policies toward the F/P in a number of specific areas including: U.S. visa restrictions on F/P's nationals; U.S. policies toward commercial air carrier transit between the U.S. and the F/P; U.S. policy toward F/P's efforts to combat drug transit between drug producing areas in Asia - through F/P's territory – for onward transit to the United States; and U.S. polices toward F/P's efforts to comply with U.S. money laundering laws.

Item 12, Page 4.

The primary role played by Registrant was the promotion of democracy and respect for human rights in Nigeria. However, R did collect information on U.S. policies for the F/P. These information collection efforts did include the R attending public events (such as Congressional Hearings) and also ad hoc meetings and conversations with Congressional Staff and others. While R did not advocate a position for F/P, the R did advise these individuals as to its first-hand understanding of the democracy and human rights situation in Nigeria.

In addition, the R provided the Embassy of Nigeria in Washington, D.C. with a high degree of consultation with respect to the Embassy's development of official correspondence, statements positions and policies, etc. While the R did draft and submit suggested text for speeches, press releases, opinion, policy and background papers, these documents where taken by the Embassy, edited and distributed or otherwise used by the Embassy as official Embassy documents.
