Dear Mr. Lau:

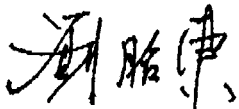

Our institute is pleased to engage you as its representative for providing it with information on the political situation in the United States of America and its changes. We are most interested in the subjects of the free flow of news and commercial information from China to the United States of America. Information important to our company includes any policy, law, regulation and court case or changes in those that may affect commercial freedom of speech by foreign nationals, companies and governments in the United States of America; copyright protection available relating to company information and changes to the existing laws and treaties; and the policies of the Federal Communication Commission relating to international telephone usage, satellite broadcasts and radio frequencies. The United States Congress, the Executive branch and the courts all have a role in these matters and information from these sources are very important.

From time to time, based on the information we receive, we may need you to be active on our behalf with the United States government. You may be asked to contact members of Congress and the Executive Branch and their staffs in an effort to influence them to adopt policies or laws or regulations which favor our interests.

We will pay you standard rate of $1,000.00 per job, plus all out-of-pocket expenses to complete the project we assign for you. This fee will be paid to you after you accept any such project in writing and complete the work involved.

We look forward to a long and mutually rewarding relationship.

Best regards,

Liu Zhaodong
