Irish Unity People's Assembly: Diaspora June 2025 Call - FOLLOW UP

Hello,

It was great to see everyone who was able to make Monday's call. Thank you to everyone who joined, especially all the new faces who have joined in the wake of recent events in Nashville, Cincinnati, and Chicago!

Here's a recap for each committee and links for next steps. If you weren't able to join us this time, no worries. We look forward to seeing you on the next call which is scheduled for Monday, July 14th at 7:00pm ET.

RESOLUTIONS

The Resolutions group is making good progress with the creation of universal language that can possibly be used as a template in many legislative bodies - local, city, and state. There is also a conversation about timing and strategy. For now, we are going to focus on the areas where we have people working on the ground, namely Ohio, Illinois, and Massachusetts.

We have a separate email thread going with everyone on this committee.

ENGAGEMENT & EDUCATION

A new committee! This group is focusing on creating resources and strategies to help with education and level-setting for people to get involved. At recent Assemblies it became clear that there is a wide variety of experience, education, and history with

STUDY GROUP

Another new committee! This group is creating a plan and study guide to be used with the book Making Sense of a United Ireland by Brendan O'Leary. For this first round, we will be accepting 30 members into the study group. If you are interested in joining the study group (not the subcommittee), please fill out this form. We will be making a schedule of calls and plans for the study guide in the coming days. We anticipate meeting twice a month for study group sessions.

No Committee Yet?

If you were unable to join the most recent call and would like to join one of the committees above, please send me an email and let me know.

Thank you all again for all of your work and commitment to the cause of a new and united Ireland. Please let me know what questions you have or resources you need.

Sincerely,

Greg O'Loughlin
