Irish Unity

People's Assembly: Diaspora

June 2025 Call

Hello,

I'm looking forward to seeing everyone who is able to make the call this evening.

Here's a look at the agenda again:

- Welcome new participants - introductions
- Review highlights from Nashville, Cincinnati, & Chicago
- Share progress, updates, or news from your community/committee
- Discussion of new committee ideas
- Break into small groups
- Report back to whole group
- Next steps, dates, and calls

And here's a link to an article Pat Cullen MP wrote just before she came over to the States for this run of Assemblies: Irish Government can no longer hold a veto on Irish Unity

See you at 7:00pm ET here: <https://zoom.us/j/97734216250>

Sincerely,

Friends of Sinn Féin

For those of you who may be joining for the first time, here are a couple of notes: These calls happen on the second Monday of every month. They are not mandatory, and we do not take attendance, but they are better when you are there. If you missed last month or haven't been able to make one yet, you are still more than welcome to join! The purpose of the calls is to provide a regular check in and update from activists across the country and to look for opportunities to support one another in our work to advance the cause of Irish Unity. We currently have one standing subcommittee who works on crafting language for Irish Unity resolutions at all levels of representative government. We plan on creating new committees as the needs develop. The only 'prerequisite' for joining a call is to have registered for an Irish Unity People's Assembly: Diaspora and to have opted in to join this group. We can't wait to see you!
