Irish Unity People's Assembly for the Diaspora Zoom Call: TONIGHT Monday, July 14 7:00pm ET

Hello,

We are scheduled to meet tonight, Monday, July 14 at 7:00pm ET on this zoom link:

<https://zoom.us/j/96095888826>

We'll begin by asking if there is any news, developments, or events to share with the group. I'll share some updates and questions for the group, and then we'll break into committees for more work time.

Study Group has run into some technical difficulties with book availability - we can make a good plan to get out of this jam.

Education and Engagement group has been making great progress on this shared document:

The Resolutions group is making excellent progress thanks to the drafts being written, shared, and edited by the group. It would be great if someone from that group could give us all an update on the next call. Sean Nestor, would you be OK with

No Committee Yet?

If you were unable to join the most recent call and would like to join one of the committees above, please send me an email and let me know. If you want to discuss ideas for a new committee or share updates from your work in your committee, be ready to share on the call.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone who can make it. If you haven't made one of the calls yet, why not jump in and join us this evening? We don't take attendance, but the calls are better when you're there and we have plenty of work to do!

Thank you all again for all of your work and commitment to the cause of a new and united Ireland. Please let me know what questions you have or resources you need.

See you tonight on this zoom link: <https://zoom.us/j/96095888826>

Sincerely,

Greg O'Loughlin
