Irish Unity People's Assembly for the Diaspora Zoom Call: Monday, Oct 13 7:00pm ET

Hello!

I hope everyone is well. I'm looking forward to catching up with everyone who can make the call this evening.

For all the new folks on the list - welcome! We had a great turnout in San Francisco and our list of activists who want to stay involved has grown considerably.

If you haven't joined us for a call yet, here's what you can expect:

These calls happen on the second Monday of every month. They are not mandatory, but they are better when you are there. If you missed last month or haven't been able to make one yet, you are still more than welcome to join. We do not take attendance. The purpose of the calls is to provide a regular check in and update from activists across the country and to look for opportunities to support one another in our work to advance the cause of Irish Unity.

We currently have three standing subcommittees: 1) RESOLUTIONS works on crafting language for Irish Unity resolutions at all levels of representative government, 2) EDUCATION & ENGAGEMENT works on strategies and ideas to

...y, ...CUB, ...KROCC, creates study guides for books, papers, and podcasts to be used by any organization or group who wants to join the conversation and jump into the deep end. We plan on creating new committees as the needs develop. The only 'prerequisite' for joining a call is to have registered for an Irish Unity People's Assembly: Diaspora and to have opted in to join this group. We can't wait to see you!

Here's a look at the agenda:

- Welcome new participants - introductions
- Review highlights from San Francisco, New York, and Webinars
- Share progress, updates, or news from your community/committee
- Break into small groups
- Report back to whole group
- Next steps, dates, and calls

We'll meet at 7:00pm ET at this link: https://zoom.us/j/93093608203

Depending on how many people attend, you can expect the call to last 60 - 90 minutes.

I'm excited about our October Webinar guest Ben Collins - you can sign up for the webinar by clicking on the images below.

See you soon!

Thank you,

Greg O'Loughlin
