Retention Letter

Dear Mr. Minister:

Based upon our meetings in Zagreb, our subsequent discussions during your June visit to Washington, and our meetings with Ambassador Zuzul during his August trip to Washington, we are pleased to offer you the following agreement for the retention of Hunton & Williams' legal and representational services for one year, beginning on August 1, 1995. This representation could, of course, be renewed for future years upon the mutual agreement of the parties. This agreement may be terminated by either party upon 30-days notice.

As we have discussed, in view of the fluidity of the current situation, both in Croatia and Washington, it is impossible for us to provide you at this time with a complete list of all of the tasks we will undertake over the next year on Croatia's behalf. Broadly speaking, we propose to represent the interests of the Republic of Croatia before the United States Government, including a range of advocacy initiatives and measures designed to ensure that Croatia's position on various issues is fully appreciated and understood in the United States. Toward that end, we plan to advise you on how both to respond to various media stories portraying developments in and around Croatia and how to anticipate them in advance, enabling you to present a full and accurate picture of your government's actions and intentions. In addition, we will advise you on how to improve the overall relationship between Croatia and the United States, and to attract American investment to Croatia. In this regard, we also will participate in your efforts in this area.

As per your request, we intend to provide you and your representatives with periodic reports and to seek your guidance on what specific actions should be undertaken on your behalf in the United States. Towards that end, we intend to communicate with you, both orally and in writing, meet with your representatives in Washington, and travel to Croatia as needed. Indeed, as I understand it, you would like us to meet with you in Zagreb sometime in the next two or three weeks to discuss what specific steps can be taken at this time.

Under this agreement, Hunton & Williams would be retained to work on behalf of the Republic of Croatia for a period of up to one year for a fee of $500,000, plus expenses. The category of expenses covers such items as transportation, phone charges, and copying costs. Thus, the $500,000 budget will cover only the costs of our services. Expenses will be billed separately. The reason we are not providing you with a more precise estimate of expenses is because it is difficult to gauge at this time the amount that will be incurred. Obviously, the most substantial potential expense category is the cost of transportation to and from Croatia. At this point in time, we do not know how many trips will be necessary over the course of the next year.

The monies received from you will be placed in interest bearing escrow accounts, and Hunton & Williams will draw from those accounts a monthly fee equal to one twelfth of $500,000. Any interest will, of course, belong to the Republic of Croatia, which can use those funds to offset expense payments due to Hunton & Williams. In the event that this agreement is terminated, Hunton & Williams will remit to the Republic of Croatia only those funds remaining in the accounts. As is customary with Hunton & Williams, we will provide the Government of Croatia with monthly statements, reflecting the work done during the preceding month and the expenses incurred. Per our recent conversation, we request that of the total amount, at least $250,000 be provided to Hunton & Williams contemporaneously with the execution of this agreement. The remaining balance of our fees -- $250,000 -- will be provided to Hunton & Williams by January 1, 1996.

In undertaking this representation, as we have discussed, Hunton & Williams will be required to register as your representative under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, and this agreement -- as well as a record of our expenses and reimbursements -- will have to be publicly disclosed as a part of that process. Indeed, we are presently in the process of filing the required papers with the United States Department of Justice.

We will, of course, maintain all of our communications with you in the strictest confidence, as covered by the Attorney-Client Privilege, to the fullest extent allowed by law.

In response to your request for information regarding the names of individuals who will be working on this matter, the following Hunton & Williams lawyers will be initially assigned to this file -- John J. Adams, John J. Rhodes, III, Lee A. Casey, and myself. Please keep in mind that, over time, it may be necessary for Hunton & Williams to add lawyers, or to reassign lawyers working on your account. These decisions are made solely by Hunton & Williams.

Finally, we may be called upon by other clients, present or future, to represent them in commercial transactions with your Government, or commercial entities within the Republic of Croatia. Because we cannot predict what situations may arise, we ask that you agree that our law firm will remain free to represent such clients so long as the matters involved are not specifically related to the matters in which we are representing Croatia, and do not require us to utilize confidential information that we have learned from the Government of Croatia while working on your behalf.

If the representational terms described in this letter are satisfactory to you, please acknowledge your agreement by signing below.

The foregoing correctly states our understanding.
