QUESTION 11

During this 6 month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal named in items 8, 9, and 10 of this statement?

Yes. Hunton & Williams has rendered a number of different representational services to the Republic of Croatia during the last six-month period. These activities have included advice and counsel regarding Croatia's relationship with the United States, the preparation of policy statements, arguments and analysis, as well as the representation of the views and interests of the Republic of Croatia before the United States Government and with members of the American media. (See response to question 12 for a detailed description of contacts with members of the media and U.S. Government officials.) In addition, the Firm has attempted to promote American investment in Croatia. In this regard, firm lawyers have contacted a number of American and foreign hotel companies to ascertain their interest in investing in Croatia. The Firm also has advised Croatian Government officials on questions of American law and the American political system.

The Firm also has rendered non-registrable legal services and advice to Croatian officials, including the defense of a lawsuit filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California against Croatia and its president, participation in pending litigation in New York, N.Y. on Croatia's behalf (regarding various property claims) and the representation of Croatia in various matters before the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia in the Hague, Netherlands. This representation has included appearances before the International Tribunal, as well as contacts with United Nations personnel.

QUESTIONS

During this reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity as defined below?

Yes. Hunton & Williams engaged in a number of activities during this reporting period on behalf of the Republic of Croatia that may meet the definition of "political activities" under FARA. The Firm represented Croatia's interests before the United States Government, with a particular emphasis on improving understanding and relations between the two countries.

In particular, Hunton & Williams attorneys had contacts and discussions with Members of Congress and congressional staff regarding the issues involved in Croatia's continuing relationship with the United States, its aspirations to join the NATO alliance, and its relations with the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia. These contacts included phone calls to the staff of Senator Lugar (Andy Semmel & Jeff Hilliker), in-person meetings between Hunton & Williams lawyers and Mr. Semmel, and meetings between the Croatian Ambassador and Senator Lugar. These contacts took place on 5/23, 5/27, 5/28, 6/7, 6/8, and 6/9. Hunton & Williams attorneys met with the Croatian Ambassador Zoran Djindjic with Senator Lugar on 6/9. In addition, contacts were made with Congressman Frank Wolf's office in an attempt to schedule a meeting between Croatian Deputy Prime Minister Hodak and Representative Wolf regarding the same issues. These contacts took place on 6/12 and 6/16. However, a meeting could not be scheduled at that time. In addition, contacts were made with Senator Lugar's staff (Andy Semmel & Jeff Hilliker) regarding a potential trip by Senator Lugar to Croatia and Bosnia. These contacts took place on 6/25, 6/26, 7/2 and 7/9.

In addition, Hunton & Williams attorneys contacted Mr. David G. Green, Office of the Secretary of Defense Strategic & Requirements, and Mr. James M. Green, Office of the Secretary of Defense Policy & Security Affairs, to schedule a meeting between Secretary of Defense William Cohen and Croatian Deputy Prime Minister Hodak. These contacts took place on 6/14-15, 1997, and the meeting between them took place on July 28, 1997.

Hunton & Williams attorneys also met with a representative of the New York Times Editorial Board to discuss the New York Times' coverage of Croatia's situation. This meeting took place on August 1, 1997, and discussed Croatia's overall situation in the United States.
