Dear (%Salutation%):

During the past three years, you have closely followed the debate surrounding Switzerland's role during World War II. I have communicated with you, either in person, through correspondence or via our newsletter, Dialogue, regarding important aspects of this issue, including the many positive measures Switzerland has taken.

The concrete measures taken by the Swiss Government, together with the recently finalized settlement between two major Swiss banks and class action plaintiffs, as well as the World Jewish Restitution Organization, have brought about a sense of closure and resolved all World War II related financial claims raised against Swiss banks and industries (with the exception of insurance companies which are participating together with other European insurance companies in a separate process), the Swiss National Bank, as well as the Swiss Government. Mutual satisfaction over this positive development was also voiced by Swiss President Ruth Dreifuss and U.S. Vice President Al Gore, when they met in Davos on January 30, 1999. Following the meeting, the U.S. and Swiss Governments issued a joint communiqué in which they expressed their commitment to strengthening and deepening the ties between our two countries in the political, economic and cultural areas. Firmly committed to the common values of human rights, democracy and economic freedom, Switzerland and the United States will, as "sister republics," continue to cooperate in fostering peace and stability in the world.

As the controversy regarding Switzerland's World War II history has been resolved, the Swiss Government has decided to dissolve the "Task Force Switzerland-Second World War" at the end of March 1999 and, at the same time, end my mandate as its head.

The dissolution of the Task Force notwithstanding, the Swiss Government has unequivocally confirmed its commitment to continue the implementation of all the measures it has undertaken in the interest of truth, justice and solidarity. These tasks will now be carried out by other entities within the Federal Administration.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the spirit of cooperation and mutual respect that has marked our relationship throughout these difficult times. I do hope there will be other occasions for us to meet again.

Yours sincerely,

Thomas G. Borer

Dear Governor Pataki

During the past three years, I know that you have closely followed the debate over Switzerland's role during and after the Second World War. If you have had the opportunity to read our newsletter "Dialogue," you are probably aware of the most salient features of this issue, including the many positive measures Switzerland has taken in this context.

I want to take this opportunity to update you on a number of important steps that have been taken this year.

- On January 22nd, the settlement between two major Swiss banks and class action plaintiffs, as well as the World Jewish Restitution Organization, was finalized. This agreement, which was first reached on August 12, 1998, provides a closure of all financial claims related to World War Two issues raised against Swiss banks and industries (with the exception of insurance companies which are participating with other European insurance companies in a separate process). The Swiss Government welcomes the conclusion of this settlement and hopes that it will promptly benefit Holocaust victims.
- On January 30th, the Swiss President, Ruth Dreifuss, met with U.S. Vice President Al Gore in Davos, Switzerland. On that occasion, both expressed their satisfaction that this issue has been brought to a satisfactory conclusion as it relates to our bilateral relations. After the meeting, the U.S. and Swiss governments issued a joint communiqué in which they expressed their commitment to strengthening and deepening the ties between our two countries in the political, economic and cultural spheres. As "sister republics" united by common values, Switzerland and the United States will continue their strong cooperation to foster a peaceful and stable world, firmly grounded in a commitment to human rights, democratic values and open economies.

These recent events are indeed heartening. Now that this long debate, often marked by misunderstanding and confrontation, has come to a close, I look forward to a new era of cooperation. However, this does not mean that the issue of Switzerland's role in World War Two is over for us; the Swiss government has reiterated clearly its commitment to full implementation of the measures it has undertaken in the spirit of truth, justice and solidarity.

I enclose for your information a copy of the declaration of the Federal Council from January 22, as well as the joint Swiss-U.S. communiqué and the U.S. press statement from January 30.

Sincerely,
