1. MFA understands that in the future Pillsbury may be asked to represent a party in a transaction or a dispute that is adverse or potentially adverse to MFA, where that transaction or dispute is unrelated to scope of work set out in Article 2. Under the rules of professional conduct for lawyers in many of the jurisdictions where Pillsbury practices law, it may be precluded from representing a current or new client in a matter adverse or potentially adverse to the MFA, even though that matter is unrelated to this engagement, unless we have specific agreement from MFA in advance.
2. MFA confirms that it understands and agrees that Pillsbury may take on such unrelated matters and that it waives any conflicts that such a future representation might present to the extent such consent and waiver may be required under applicable laws. Pillsbury will preserve at all times MFA's confidences under applicable rules of professional conduct and this contract and this advance waiver does not affect that obligation.
3. Since the MFA is a large entity with numerous components and personnel, Pillsbury will not regard any legal entity not specified in this contract or other written agreement (i.e., a specific ministry, department, official, or employee) or other related entities or individuals as clients. Similarly, Pillsbury will not regard a representation that is adverse to such an affiliate or related entity or individual as being adverse to MFA.
