Dear Mr. Prime Minister:

Thank you for much for your very gracious letter of June 24. Needless to say, a visit to your beautiful country would interest me greatly, both for political as well as cultural reasons. I have heard glowing accounts of its beauty while the political dynamics in the region also underline the importance of Montenegro's democratic consolidation.

I will be in touch with your colleagues regarding my schedule and perhaps at some point a mutually convenient time will be set. Given the scheduling complications produced by the forthcoming U.S. elections, I am not at this moment in a position to propose to you a specific date.

Looking forward to seeing you, with kind regards,

Sincerely,
