AGREEMENT

between

The Berne Economic Development Agency
Münsterplatz 3
CH-3011 Berne
(hereafter called BEDA)

and Parter International Inc.

501 Fifth Avenue
New York, NY 10017
(hereafter called PI)

1. INTRODUCTION

BEDA nominates PI as its Representative for the territory of North America (USA and Canada).

PI is responsible for any registration as might be required under US and Canadian law for this kind of business relationship.

2. OFFICE SET-UP

PI shall maintain a permanent East Coast and West Coast office with a fully staffed phone answering service during regular US business hours and where the desired PI person can be reached right away independent of his or her present location.

3. SERVICES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

PI agrees to reach or to exceed as soon as possible, no later than October 1, 1998, a meaningful site location visit to the Canton of Berne averaging 2 visits per month.

PI shall direct its efforts to introduce the Canton of Berne, Switzerland, as an ideal European site focusing on companies having an annual revenue of at least US$ 5 Mio of which a noticeable percentage comes from Europe already.

Suitable companies ideally are active in one or more of the following fields:

- medical technology including pharmacology
- precision technology
- telecommunication and information technology
- environmental technology
- design and luxury items
- services (Headquarter operations, marketing and sales, R and D, etc.)

BEDA will provide PI with all marketing and other collateral materials in english in sufficient number.

1998 JUN -5 PM 6:15

REC'D
SECRET

PI shall utilize all suitable modern marketing techniques towards maximizing the number of meaningful site location visits. Should both BEDA and PI decide to incorporate advertising or other special promotion opportunities into the investment attraction program, the cost of said advertising will be paid directly by BEDA and not from the compensation set forth in paragraph 4.

After site location visits have taken place, PI shall provide further desirable local follow-up until a project is either realized or lost.

PI shall maintain a suitable coordination effort with „Location Switzerland“.

PI shall provide general information on the Canton of Berne and the incentives that BEDA can offer to prospective investors, multipliers and others in Northamerica. PI is not allowed to commit to any tax and investment incentive package as might be offered to a company or a person either verbally or in writing.

PI will work with BEDA and provide advice with respect to the preparation of BEDA marketing materials for the US and Canada.

BEDA shall support PI on an ongoing basis including visits to potential investors in the USA and by providing information for specific prospects in as timely manner as possible.

All letters of intent for the American market will be provided to PI for review. Each Letter of Intent for the American market will contain a clause, to be agreed upon by BEDA and PI, relating to the conditions of the offer. Should that clause not be present in a Letter of Intent, BEDA will release PI from any expenses that might be incurred relating to any action brought against PI by the prospective investor.

4. COMPENSATION

During the balance of 1998, considered as the trial period, BEDA shall pay to PI, on or before May 1, 1998, a sum of US$ 30,800.- and thereafter, a monthly sum of US$ 23,500.-, payable on the first day of every month, covering all the cost of the services to be provided under this agreement. Compensation of US$ 24,500.- a month will be payable for 1999. The monthly amount starting in the year 2000 shall be negotiated, based on the initial experience gained.

Payment will be made by wire transfer to a bank account identified and provided by PI.

5. ACTIVITY REPORT

PI shall issue a monthly activity report which has to include the following items:

- number of companies and multipliers contacted by mail, fax, phone, e-mail or in person and contact details where meaningful.
- number of literature items sent out
- number of visits made
- activities done such as mailings, seminars, business luncheons, etc.
- activities planned for the next month
- expected site visits to the Canton of Berne during the month ahead

The format of this report could be modified by BEDA as the need occurs.

6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

PI shall maintain a complete and updated contact database which shall be compatible with the BEDA computer hard- and software. The database contains not only the addresses of prospective investors and other contacts, but also their contact history. This database is the property of BEDA. BEDA reserves the right to get an updating of this database at any time. At the end of the agreement PI shall transfer the updated database promptly to BEDA.

7. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

PI shall not entertain any business relationship which in BEDA's judgment would present a conflict of interest. PI may represent other government agencies for commercial matters on a short term basis but with respect to any work involving or related to investment attraction, PI must first obtain the approval of BEDA. Violation of this clause gives BEDA the authority to terminate this agreement immediately upon notification of violation of this clause.

8. TERMS AND TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

During the trial period from May 1 to December 31, 1998, each party can give an advance notice of 60 days.

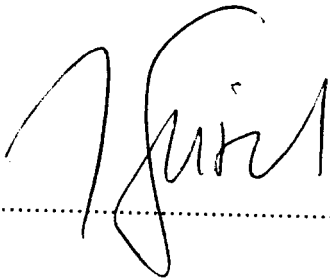

Thereafter the agreement shall be renewed on a yearly basis unless advance notice is given by September 30 of the preceding year. Under the present Canton of Berne legislation it shall automatically end on December 31, 2001.

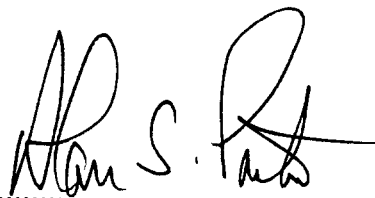

9. GOVERNING LAW

This agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with Swiss law as represented by the court of the City of Berne, Switzerland.
