Short Form Registration Statement

Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. Each partner, officer, director, associate, employee, and agent of a registrant is required to file a short form registration statement unless he engages in no activities in furtherance of the interests of the registrant's foreign principal or unless the services he renders to the registrant are in a secretarial, clerical, or in a related or similar capacity. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic short form registration statement at <http://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <http://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public and online at: <http://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .429 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterespionage Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Footnote: Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

ATTACHMENT

11. Describe separately and in detail all services which you will render to the foreign principal(s) listed in Item 10 either directly, or through the primary registrant listed in Item 8, and the date(s) of such services. (If space is insufficient, a full insert page must be used.)

Saudi Petroleum International, Incorporated ("SPII") provides crude and product marketing, as well as support services, in North America to the Saudi Arabian Oil Company. The undersigned may engage in meetings, discussions, public relations and related activities and in contacts with U.S. agencies and governmental officials concerning such matters as governmental and public policies respecting foreign ownership or participation in U.S. petroleum refining or marketing ventures or in other matters of concern to SPII's foreign principles. Such activities may include written or oral presentations to U.S. governmental officials, media representatives, and private organizations.

12. Do any of the above described services include political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act and in the footnote below?

Yes No

If yes, describe separately and in detail such political activity.

There is from time to time much public debate regarding the importation of crude oil into the United States, participation by foreign interests in business in the United States, and the export of certain technologies. The undersigned, on behalf of SPII, and one or both of its foreign principles may need to participate in that debate, utilizing the traditional governmental and public relations facilities that commercial and industrial entities typically use in this connection, including the services described in 11, above.

14. What compensation or thing of value have you received to date or will you receive for the above services?

The undersigned will receive no compensation beyond his salary as an employee of SPII. It is anticipated that the services above, if rendered, will represent but a very small part of the undersigned's overall responsibilities.
