Attachment to Supplemental Statement, FARA, for period ending Jan. 28, 2000

11. We provided services to Guatemala during the six-month reporting period. We met with representatives of various constituencies within Guatemala in an effort to further the peace process in that country. We made suggestions to those constituencies about how they might improve their interrelationships and reduce the climate of tension in the country. We spoke to a U.S. human rights activist to inquire whether she had actually made the statements attributed to her in the Guatemalan press and to inform her of some of the underlying facts. We spoke with a U.S. Senate staffer and with a U.S. AID official about the ways the United States might be able to assist the demobilization of the EMP, the Guatemalan presidential guard. We spoke with a Senate staffer and a State Department employee about assisting a Guatemalan criminal prosecutor obtain DNA test results on an expedited basis from the FBI. We advised the President of Guatemala in connection with a brief meeting with a U.S. Senator. We encouraged and facilitated the work of a U.S. non-profit to conduct a conference in Guatemala on the issues that arise in a transition to democracy.

12. See No. 11 above. In discussions with a U.S. Senate staffer and separately with a U.S. AID official, we inquired about the possibility that the U.S. might be willing to join other nations in funding the dissolution of the EMP. It was presumably clear to the staffer and official that we hoped that funds to aid in this effort could be provided by the U.S. With regard to our advice to the President of Guatemala in advance of his brief meeting with a U.S. Senator, we advised him as to the Senator's interest in human rights issues in Guatemala.
