The Free Iran World Summit 2021 Starts July 10

The online event will feature 1,029 political figures, including 25 bipartisan members of the U.S. Senate and House, and voices of opposition from within Iran

The three-day Free Iran World Summit 2021 will be held online July 10, 11, and 12, 2021.

More than 1,000 political figures, including 25 bipartisan members of the U.S. Congress, 30 senior former U.S. officials, 12 former prime ministers and presidents, and 70 former ministers from North America, Europe, and the Middle East have confirmed their attendance. In addition, 179 lawmakers from European countries and Canada and 66 parliamentarians from Islamic countries will attend.

A focus of the event will be calls to prosecute the regime's next president, Ebrahim Raisi, as well as its Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei. The event will showcase the organized opposition to the Iran regime from within Iran and around the world.

More information about the event and speakers will be made available in the coming days. For journalists interested in covering the summit, access to the event via ZOOM will be provided.
