Chris:

I'm writing on behalf of our client, the Foreign Ministry of Cyprus. As you may know, Cyprus currently holds the presidency of the Council of the European Union.

The Cypriot Foreign Minister, Constantinos Kombos, will be in Washington the week of February 2, 2026. He is hoping to meet with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee members during the visit.

He's hoping to discuss several issues, including Russia-Ukraine and Cyprus' role in the Middle East. Cyprus played a key role in evacuating Americans when Iran attacked Israel last year.

Is it possible to arrange a committee coffee for the minister?

Many thanks for considering!

Best,

Les
